Zombie Politics and Culture in the Age of Casino Capitalism Henry A. Giroux, 2011 Zombie Politics and Culture in the Age of Casino Capitalism capitalizes upon the popularity of zombies exploring the relevance of the metaphor they provide for examining the political and pedagogical conditions that have produced a growing culture of sadism, cruelty, disposability and death in America. The zombie metaphor may seem extreme but it is particularly apt for drawing attention to the ways in which political culture and power in American society now operate on a level of mere survival. This book uses the metaphor not only to suggest the symbolic face of power beginning and ending with an analysis of authoritarianism; it attempts to mark and chart the visible registers of a kind of zombie politics including the emergence of right wing teaching machines, a growing politics of disposability, the emergence of a culture of cruelty and the ongoing war being waged on young people, especially on youth of color. By drawing attention to zombie politics and authoritarianism, this book aims to break through the poisonous common sense that often masks zombie politicians, anti-public intellectuals, politics institutions and social relations and bring into focus a new language, pedagogy and politics in which the living dead will be moved decisively to the margins rather than occupying the very center of politics and everyday life.

Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino, 2015-06-30 In Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino analyzes a new type of literature emerging from artists' increased movement and cultural flows spawned by globalization. This transcultural literature is produced by authors who write across cultural and national boundaries and who transcend in their lives and creative production the borders of a single culture. Dagnino's book contains a creative rendition of interviews conducted with five internationally renowned writers: Inez Baranay, Brian Castro, Alberto Manguel, Tim Parks and Ilija Trojanow, and a critical exegesis reflecting on thematic, critical and stylistic aspects. By studying the selected authors' corpus of work, life experiences and cultural orientations, Dagnino explores the implicit, often subconscious process of cultural and imaginative metamorphosis that leads transcultural writers and their fictionalized characters beyond ethnic, national, racial or religious loci of identity and identity formation. Drawing on the theoretical framework of comparative cultural studies, she offers insight into transcultural writing related to belonging, hybridity, cultural errancy, the Other, worldviews, translingualism, deterritorialization, neonomadism, as well as genre, thematic patterns and narrative techniques. Dagnino also outlines the implications of transcultural writing within the wider context of world literature and identifies some of the main traits that characterize transcultural novels.

Meaning and Aging Joachim Duyndam, Anja Machielse, 2024-04-27

The main objective of this book is to add from a humanist perspective new interdisciplinary insights and research results to the current academic debate on aging. The collection aims to enhance and complement the predominantly biomedical and sociological debates and provide a more comprehensive and highly topical view on aging and old age. By purveying a meaning in life perspective to the current debate we want to enrich and to deepen the research on aging thus aspiring to an ideal of meaningful aging. The starting point of this book is a humanistic meaning frame for addressing basic needs of a meaningful existence such as having goals in life, a sense of self worth, connectedness with others, moral justification, a certain degree of understanding, comprehensibility, direction and influence with a view to cohesion in life and not in the least place living pleasure or excitement. Taken together the essays show that experiencing a meaningful life contributes to one's mental resilience conceived as the ability to realize a humane individuality, autonomy in thinking and acting in situations of adversity and vulnerability particularly those faced by older people.

Timothy Stephen, 2021-11-25 Self and Other in an Age of Uncertain Meaning explores the nature and origins of widespread problems of self in modern societies.
