Association of Universities,1959 Annuaire Européen Vol. Xii European Yearbook B. Landheer,2013-12-14 The term

EUROVISION invented by pure chance only a few years ago is now familiar to millions What the name covers is the subject of this paper EUROVISION is not the name of an organisation or company but rather an emblem It signifies international co operation in television programme exchanges within the framework of the European Broad casting Union or rather the most spectacular element of that Co oper ation It appears conspicuously at the head of programmes relayed by several countries

To understand the full extent of this co operation it is best to look at the wider field covered by the structure and working of the European Broadcasting Union itself The European Broadcasting Union is a professional association grouping Western European radio television organisations as active members with organisations in other continents as associate members It is financed by contributions from its members Questions of principle management and financial responsibility come under the Administrative Council or the General Assembly from which it is elected in which the Directors General of the several organisations are represented The present Chairman is M RoDIN6 of Italy who succeeded M RYDBECK of Sweden Four Committees are responsible for preparatory studies and routine problems the Legal the Technical the Programme and the Sound Broadcasting Committees which group the specialist Service Directors

European Yearbook / Annuaire

Europeen 1964 Council of Europe/Conseil de L'Europe,1966-07-01 The European Yearbook promotes the scientific study of nineteen European supranational organisations and the OECD The series offers a detailed survey of the history structure and yearly activities of each organisation and an up to date overview of the member states of each organisation This special anniversary volume celebrates 60 years of publication of the Yearbook and its contents differs from that of the regular volumes therefore It offers a selection of the most important articles dealing with European cooperation and integration to appear in the Yearbook during its 60 years of publication These are of particular interest not only because they provide a unique historical snapshot of the many successes and occasional failures in the field of European integration but also because they discuss the ideals and aims that lay behind these efforts many of which still resonate today as Europe confronts questions about its political destiny and ideal shape This volume contains articles in English and French
