Daniels, 2011-11-17 Conductors John Yaff and David Daniels have created a one stop sourcebook for orchestras opera companies conductors and librarians who research and or prepare programs of vocal excerpts such as solos ensembles and choruses for concert performance In this book readers will find detailed information on a vast repertoire of vocal pieces commonly extracted from operas operettas musicals and oratorios more than 1 750 excerpts from 450 parent works Modeled on Daniels Orchestral Music Arias Ensembles Choruses includes basic historical details about each parent work as well as extract titles subtitles voice types keys durations locations in the original work with page numbers in both full scores and piano vocal scores and exact instrumentation It also lists the publishers that make available the orchestral materials for just the excerpt being programmed independent of the full parent work Until now conductors and orchestra librarians commonly had to first leaf through full scores searching for one elusive three minute aria after another only to then consult multiple publishers catalogues to compile crucial information on all the excerpts proposed for a concert or recording This book constitutes a single source for finding that information In many cases the individual entries include valuable insider information on common performance practice including start and stop points transpositions and conventional cuts Searching for repertoire is made easy with the detailed title index and appendixes devoted to ensemble excerpts all categorized by
