Luis Buuel Cineasta Universal Filmmaker:

Luis Buñuel Jo Evans, Breixo Viejo, 2019-10-31 Luis Buñuel A Life in Letters provides access for the first time to an annotated English language version of around 750 of the most important and most widely relevant of these letters Buñuel 1900 1983 came to international attention with his first films Un Chien Andalou with Dalí 1929 and Le gè d Or 1930 two surprisingly avant garde productions that established his position as the undisputed master of Surrealist filmmaking He went on to make 30 full length features in France the US and Mexico and consolidated his international reputation with a Palme d Or for Viridiana in 1961 and an Academy Award in 1973 for The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie He corresponded with some of the most famous writers directors actors and artists of his generation and the list of these correspondents reads like a roll call of major twentieth century cultural icons Fellini Truffaut Vigo Aragon Dalí Unik and yet none of this material has been accessible outside specialist archives and a very small number of publications in Spanish and French Luis Bunuel Peter William Evans, Isabel Santaolalla, 2019-07-25 This text ranges widely over key films and moments from stages of Luis Bunuel s career It locates and re appraises Bunuel s films with particular emphasis on the national cinemas and varied cultures with which he was identified Reading the Gospels in the Dark Richard Walsh, 2003-10-01 Films with Jesus or Jesus like characters have been part of movies since the earliest days and Walsh explores just what kind of impact they have had on their audiences Conversations with Bunuel Max Aub, 2017-05-02 This book features extended conversations with Spanish filmmaker Luis Bunuel 1900 1983 and interviews with his family members friends and colleagues including Salvador Dalí Louis Aragon and Fernando Rey conducted by Max Aub in the late 1960s and early 1970s Notorious for inventing fanciful versions of his life and his creative output Bunuel was hard put to deceive the astute Max Aub who shared Bunuel s background in Spain in Paris during the Spanish Civil War and in Mexico where they were friends and collaborators Originally published in Spain in 1985 this translated the first in English and expanded edition with several significant interviews and a detailed index not found in the original provides a detailed picture of Bunuel s life and art Extensive notes contextualize the conversations and acknowledge the discoveries of recent studies on Bunuel The Cinema of Aki Kaurismäki Andrew Nestingen, 2013-07-02 Since 1983 Aki Kaurismäki has made classically styled films filled with cinephilic references to film history influencing Jim Jarmusch Quentin Tarantino and Wes Anderson Yet the director is often depicted as the loneliest most nostalgic of Finns except when promoting his films making political statements and running his many businesses Drawing on revisionist approaches to film authorship this text links Kaurismäki s work to issues in film aesthetics and history nostalgia late modernity commerce film festivals and national cinema A Companion to Literature, Film, and Adaptation Deborah Cartmell, 2014-08-25 This is a comprehensive collection of original essays that explore the aesthetics economics and mechanics of movie adaptation from the days of silent cinema to contemporary franchise phenomena Featuring a range of theoretical approaches and chapters on the historical ideological and economic aspects of adaptation the volume reflects today's acceptance of intertextuality as a vital and progressive cultural force Incorporates new research in adaptation studies Features a chapter on the Harry Potter franchise as well as other contemporary perspectives Showcases work by leading Shakespeare adaptation scholars Explores fascinating topics such as unfilmable texts Includes detailed considerations of Ian McEwan's Atonement and Conrad's Heart of Darkness Saints, Clergy and Other Religious Figures on Film and Television, 1895-2003 Ann C. Paietta, 2015-01-24 The portrayal of clergy saints missionaries monks and other spiritual leaders dates back to the very beginnings of motion pictures and television Over the years filmmakers have portrayed religious figures as heroes and villains sinners and saints and nearly everything in between Through their works filmmakers have influenced how society viewed these religious figures and by extension religion itself This work details over 900 films and television series made from the 1890s through 2003 in which a religious figure plays a prominent or recurring role or in which a character poses as a religious figure For each motion picture full filmographic data are provided including title studio running time year of release director producer writer and cast along with a synopsis focusing on the role of the religious figure Television series are covered in a separate section For each show the entry includes the title under which the show was commonly known the original broadcast network the years the show ran running time and cast and a brief discussion of the religious character's role in the overall series Extensively indexed Wild/lives Terrie Waddell, 2014-02-25 Wild lives draws on myth popular culture and analytical psychology to trace the machinations of trickster in contemporary film and television This archetypal energy traditionally gravitates toward liminal spaces physical locations and shifting states of mind By focusing on productions set in remote or isolated spaces Terrie Waddell explores how key trickster infused sites of transition reflect the psychological fragility of their willing and unwilling occupants In differing ways the selected texts Deadwood Grizzly Man Lost Solaris The Biggest Loser Amores Perros and Repulsion all play with inner and outer marginality As this study demonstrates the dramatic potential of transition is not always geared toward resolution Prolonging the anxiety of change is an increasingly popular option Trickster moves within this wildness and instability to agitate a form of dialogue between conscious and unconscious processes Waddell's imaginative interpretation of screen material and her original positioning of trickster will inspire students of media cinema gender and Jungian studies as well as academics with an interest in the application of Post Jungian ideas to screen culture The Director's Idea Ken Dancyger, 2006-02-21 As a director you must have a concept a director's idea to shape your approach to the actors the camera and the script With this clear idea your film will be deeper and more effective and you will be able to differentiate and therefore make the choice between competent directing and great directing Using case studies of famous directors as real world examples of director's ideas the author has provided the theory and the practice to help directors immediately improve their work Filming Robert Flaherty's Louisiana Story Helen Durant, 1998 This book details the production of Robert Flaherty's most beautiful and most ambitious film Louisiana Story At its core are the production diaries of Helen van

Dongen associate producer and editor for the project and a pioneer among women filmmakers Her informative notes which have never before been published illuminate the problems and challenges of shooting and cutting the film on location in the bayou country of Louisiana The essays describe the creative partnership that van Dongen developed with Flaherty They also provide insight into New York's documentary film scene during the 1930s and 40s The illustrations include film stills working documents and archival photographs there are also biographies and filmographies Rape-Revenge Films Alexandra Heller-Nicholas, 2021-04-12 Often considered the lowest depth to which cinema can plummet the rape revenge film is broadly dismissed as fundamentally exploitative and sensational catering only to a demented regressive demographic This second edition ten years after the first continues the assessment of these films and the discourse they provoke Included is a new chapter about women directed rape revenge films a phenomenon that revitalized since MeToo exploded in late 2017 is a filmmaking tradition with a history that transcends a contemporary context Featuring both famous and unknown movies controversial and widely celebrated filmmakers as well as rape revenge cinema from around the world this revised edition demonstrates that diverse and often contradictory treatments of sexual violence exist simultaneously Abel Gance and the End of Silent Cinema Paul Cuff, 2016-11-10 This book explores the creation and destruction of Abel Gance's most ambitious film project and seeks to explain why his meteoric career was so nearly extinguished at the end of silent cinema By 1929 Gance was France's most famous director Acclaimed for his technical innovation and visual imagination he was also admonished for the excessive length and expense of his productions Gance's first sound film La Fin du Monde 1930 was a critical and financial disaster so great that it nearly destroyed his career But what went wrong Gance claimed it was commercial sabotage whilst critics blamed the director's inexperience with new technology Neither excuse is satisfactory Based on extensive archival research this book re-investigates the cultural background and aesthetic consequences of Gance's transition from silent filmmaking to sound cinema La Fin du Monde is revealed to be only one element of an extraordinary cultural project to transform cinema into a universal religion and propagate its power through the League of Nations From unfinished films to unrealized social revolutions the reader is given a fascinating tour of Gance's lost cinematic utopia

The Cinema of Latin America Alberto Elena, Marina Díaz López, 2004-03-24 The Cinema of Latin America is the first volume in the new 24 Frames series of studies of national and regional cinema In taking an explicitly text centered approach the books in this series offer a unique way of considering the particular concerns styles and modes of representation of numerous national cinemas around the world This volume focuses on the vibrant practices that make up Latin American cinema a historically important regional cinema and one that is increasingly returning to popular and academic appreciation Through 24 individual concise and insightful essays that each consider one significant film or documentary the editors of this volume have compiled a unique introduction to the cinematic output of countries as diverse as Brazil Argentina Cuba Mexico Bolivia Chile and Venezuela The work of directors such as Luis Buñuel Thomas Guitierrez Alea Walter Salles and Alfonso Arau
