and Christian Communities Pa Yaw,2024-05-29 Socially engaged religion teaches that people of faith have a responsibility to address and reduce suffering in all its forms both physical and spiritual including suffering resulting from social injustice exploitation oppression false faith and so forth True religion engages with society to alleviate suffering and bring transformation In other words religious violence is an obscenity a deviation from the true character of religion Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities examines the principle of separation between religion and politics in the context of both Buddhist and Christian communities In predominantly Buddhist contexts such as Myanmar where a reciprocal relationship between religion and politics is expected separation is not effective Attempts by Christians to separate religion and politics cause the church to run away from tyranny and follow the state with blind obedience Martin Luther's model of two distinct but interconnected systems for religion and politics creates space for each institution to give constructive advice and criticism to the other for the health of all human beings Luther's works Jaroslav Pelikán,1956

The Holy Spirit and the Reformation Legacy Mark J. Cartledge,Mark A. Jumper,2020-09-16 This collection of essays explores the legacy of the Reformation with regard to the person and work of the Holy Spirit Following the five hundredth anniversary of Luther's posting of his ninety five theses these essays consider this legacy with particular reference to the work of Martin Luther and John Calvin as well as broader Reformation themes as they are related to pneumatology and the life of the church today The contribution of this collection is to tease out and reflect on pneumatology historically but also to relate these findings to contemporary discussions especially among scholars of pentecostal and charismatic Christianity Together these essays invite readers to appreciate the contribution that the Protestant Reformation makes to life in the Holy Spirit today as well as offering critical and constructive reflection on this theme It is a timely and significant contribution to the discussions of the person and work of the Holy Spirit and the church The Reformation and the Irrepressible Word of God Scott M. Manetsch,2019-05-28 The Protestant Reformers were transformed by their encounters with Scripture Bringing together the reflections of church historians and theologians delivered at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School these essays consider historical hermeneutical theological and practical issues regarding the Bible revealing that the irrepressible Word of God continues to transform hearts and minds The Promise of Martin Luther's Political Theology Michael Richard Laffin,2016-10-20 Michael Laffin demonstrates the promise of Martin Luther's thought for contemporary political theology by showing how Luther has been over determined in standard genealogies of modernity which frequently deafen us to his unique contribution Laffin argues that contemporary theologians have typically followed a narrative derived from the work of a previous generation of political historians and philosophers which tend to screen out or distort the Reformers contribution to political theory Common to these narratives are charges against Luther for his perceived univocal and nominal ontology resulting in a privatized and spiritualized Christianity thus falsely dividing the world into autonomous spheres Additionally the narratives claim that Luther follows in the wake of voluntarism leading to an insistence on human passivity that leaves no room for pagan virtue Thus politics is reduced to an authoritarian imposition of order In contrast to the dominant narratives of political modernity Laffin re examines these narratives by focusing on the political significance of areas in Luther s corpus often neglected in contemporary accounts of his political thought especially his commentaries on Scripture and writings on the sacraments Attention to these writings brings forth the crucial themes of the two ecclesiae and the three institutions Constructively these themes are deployed in critical engagement with contemporary political theology particularly as represented in Radical Orthodoxy and the new Augustinianism

Right from Wrong Mark Alan Smith,2022-11-15 Where does morality come from Apologists people who offer a formal defense of their religion point to God as the answer By inspiring scriptures that people can read study and teach God supposedly gave humanity a guidebook for how to live Award winning scholar of religion and politics Mark Alan Smith shows the errors in this chain of assumptions Apologists find themselves forced to accept a book that condemns same sex love and authorizes slavery genocide capital punishment for minor offenses and many other practices widely recognized today as immoral Apologists try to protect their worldview by ignoring the offending passages constructing strained reinterpretations rationalizing the indefensible or appealing to God s mysterious ways Is there a non religious method for discovering the elements of an objective morality Yes Smith argues the worldview of humanism Humanists apply reason logic and evidence to all subjects Smith s humanist approach to morality relies on discussion and debate among diverse participants as the best means to attain a moral code stripped of the biases of each individual group and society The result is a hopeful portrait of how to build on the moral progress humans have achieved since the writing of religious scriptures

Demythologizing Revelation Chester O'Gorman, 2019-05-24 What is revelation Is it still relevant in the twenty first century In the twentieth century radical theologian Rudolf Bultmann sought an answer by demythologizing scripture and Christian tradition Most philosophers and theologians agree that he failed adequately to demythologize revelation through his notion the kerygma In Demythologizing Revelation A Critical Continuation of Rudolf Bultmann's Project Chester O'Gorman corrects this shortcoming to continue Bultmann's project demythologizing Jesus Christ as revelation through the philosophy of Slavoj Žižek Drawing support from other notable thinkers including Judith Butler Thomas Altizer Albert Camus Rene Girard and Martin Luther O'Gorman proffers a non supernatural account and theory of revelation This theory enables both Christians and atheists to identify sites of revelation today so that all might better understand and participate in its ongoing liberation of humanity from sin and oppression for the sake of all creation

The Spirit and the Lake of Fire Rustin Umstadtd, 2017-06-28 The Holy Spirit and the Lake of Fire What does the Spirit have to do with God's final judgment The Holy Spirit and God's judgment upon sin are not two topics that are often connected but to understand the full work of the Spirit they need to be It is not enough to view judgment as the work of just the Father and the Son but in full Trinitarian fashion it must be understood as the work of all three persons of the Trinity In The Spirit and the Lake of Fire Rustin Umstadtd establishes the Spirit's role in judgment by connecting several symbols that are used for both the Spirit and judgment such as fire God's breath and God's arm Furthermore by examining Augustine's position that the Spirit is the mutual love of the Father and the Son and Luther's position that God's wrath is the underside of his love Umstadtd demonstrates how one comes to the conclusion that the Spirit is operative in God's judgment upon sin
