Lydia Queen Of Palestine:

Lydia, Queen of Palestine Uri Orlev,1995 Ten year old Lydia describes her childhood escapades in pre World War II Romania her struggles to understand her parents divorce amid the chaos of the war and her life on a kibbutz in Palestine Based on the life of the Israeli poet Arianna Haran Lydia, Queen of Palestine Uri Orlev,1995-01-01 Ten year old Lydia describes her childhood escapades in pre World War II Romania her struggles to understand her parents divorce amid the chaos of the war and her life on a kibbutz in Palestine Based on the life of the Israeli poet Arianna Haran Bearing Witness Philip Rosen,Nina Apfelbaum,2001-11-30 This resource guide will help readers locate over 800 first person accounts fiction poetry art interpretations and music by Holocaust victims and survivors as well as videos relating the testimony and experiences of Holocaust survivors In addition to the few well known writers artists and musicians whose work so eloquently captures their experience during the Holocaust this guide will introduce the reader to the lives and work of more than 250 lesser known or unrecognized writers artists and musicians from many countries who documented their experience of persecution at the hands of the Nazis This guide will help students gain firsthand knowledge of what it was like to experience the Holocaust and how ordinary people coped and created art and meaning from the ashes of their lives The entry on each writer artist and musician features a biographical sketch and list of his or her works with full bibliographic data Entries on literature and videos are annotated and include recommendations for age appropriateness The work is divided into five parts writers of memoirs diaries and fiction poets artists composers and musicians and videos that feature testimony by survivors Each part features an introductory overview of the artists and art created in that genre out of Holocaust experience Title artist writer and nationality indexes will help the reader select materials and an index organized by age appropriate levels will help teachers and librarians to select literature and videos for students Representing Childhood and Atrocity Victoria Nesfield,Philip Smith,2022-12-01 Atrocity presents a problem to the writer of children s literature To represent events of such terrible magnitude and impersonal will as the Holocaust the transatlantic slave trade or the Rwandan genocide such that they fit into a three act structure with a comprehensible moral and a happy ending is to do a disservice to the victims Yet to confront children with the fact of widescale violence without resolution is to confront them with realities that may be emotionally disturbing and even damaging Despite these challenges however there exists a considerable body of work for and about children that addresses atrocity To examine the ways in which writers and artists have attempted to address children s experience of atrocity this collection brings together original essays by an international group of scholars working in the fields of child studies children s literature comics studies education English literature and Holocaust genocide and memory studies It covers a broad geographical range and includes works by established authors and emerging voices Reading Raps Rita Soltan,2005-12-30 Book clubs are sprouting up all over and so are book club guides but not all book club guides are equal Many focus on a specific type of book club or they take a generic approach of one size fits all and most

do not take into account the special needs of librarians and educators working with young readers This guide has it all and it will help you ensure that your book club meetings are both fun and educational Focusing on children in grades 3 8 and their families the book offers 100 ready made book club instructions for popular children s and YA titles from newer releases such as Theresa Nelson s Ruby Electric and Blue Balliett s Chasing Vermeer to perennial favorites and award winning classics such as Johanna Hurwitz s Much Ado about Aldo and Gary Soto s Baseball in April and Other Stories Along with thought provoking discussion questions you ll find all the background information you need to conduct lively book discussions with a variety of readers plot summary themes and characters description genre reading level author and award information related reads and more The guide describes four types of family oriented book clubs family mother daughter father son and readers rap as well as a book club for kids only The author provides practical instructions for making each type of book club successful For each title she provides a plot summary characterization sketches questions to use for provocative discussion and follow up bibliographies on similar reads Notes on genres themes and reading levels are also provided The selected titles reflect some of the best most current and most popular children s literature In addition a broad scope of genres and multicultural titles are included Perfect for public library programs and after school book clubs this is a one stop resource with practical ready made plans that can easily be adapted to multiple environments Grades 3 8
