Like Young Francis Davis, 2002-10-24 Modern jazz and rock n roll both of which were once identified with youthful insurrection have reached middle age So have many longtime listeners including Francis Davis Now in these thirty one articles the revered jazz critic considers music young and old examining performers from Frank Sinatra and Billie Holiday to Ornette Coleman and Sun Ra But what makes this Davis s most surprising book is the inclusion of such pop icons as Elvis Presley Bob Dylan Burt Bacharach and Lou Reed Using himself as an example Davis pinpoints our collective longing for a time when we and our music were younger and more inclined to take risks Lively opinionated gracefully written and often very funny Like Young is a book for those who have long savored Davis s writing as well as for those just now discovering him
