Luna Park Grevel Lindop:

Luna Park Grevel Lindop, 2015 Centering on the themes of music travel and dance this collection of poems explores the concepts of dreams ghosts myth and magic Ranging in subject from an Afro Cuban initiation ritual to the folklore of English yew trees and in place from a haunted library to a shrine of Our Lady in Mexico this anthology deploys an original viewpoint as well as a wide range of both traditional and experimental skills Passionate sensual and full of imagination this compendium reveals a new world that is both intriguingly strange and eerily familiar Grimspound and Inhabiting Art Rod Mengham, 2018-12-13 Rod Mengham's new offering comprises two complementary halves a poetic meditation on a place the Bronze Age site of Grimspound on Dartmoor and a series of short essays on different cultural habitats Grimspound is a four part work combining prose and verse composed on site over the course of ten years It combines a wild analysis of Hound of the Baskervilles whose climactic scene takes place at Grimspound a portrait of the Victorian excavator Sabine Baring Gould and a series of poems that draw on the Russian linguist Aharon Dolgopolsky's experimental Nostratic Dictionary Inhabiting Art gathers essays on cultural history in relation to landscape and cityscape viewed either episodically or in the form of a palimpsest where the present state of the habitat both reveals and conceals its own history and prehistory Hollow Palaces Kevin J. Gardner, John Greening, 2021-09 As a genre of poetry the country house poem was born in the seventeenth century As English country house society itself grew in prominence the poem of commemoration diminished in popularity not until the Edwardian era when the country house as an institution began to wane was there a renewed interest in country house poetry As the power and influence of landed society dwindled the country house began to haunt the English literary imagination and our poets found in its dereliction a frequent subject and theme This book gathers modern and contemporary country house poems into one collection Poets representing a diversity of class race gender and generation offer a wide variety of perspectives stately exteriors and interiors crumbling ruins gardens both wild and cultivated and the voices of noble owners servants and curious visitors Waiting on the Word Malcolm Guite, 2015-09-03 For every day from Advent Sunday to Christmas Day and beyond the bestselling poet Malcolm Guite chooses a favourite poem from across the Christian spiritual and English literary traditions and offers incisive seasonal reflections on it A scholar of poetry as well as a renowned poet himself he offers readers a soul food feast for Advent Pandemonium Thomas McCarthy, 2016-11-15 Written in the wake of Ireland's 2008 economic collapse Thomas McCarthy's Pandemonium moves between lament and protest in search of a meaningful response in language Many of the poems were written during a period of retreat along Ireland's south west coast a landscape that imbues McCarthy's politics with geological intensity The Atlantic horizon where the sun lies down in the west to die is mirrored inland by corruption and rot a modern Ireland beset in the poet's eyes by financial and moral pandemonium McCarthy's subtle satiric wit and understated lyricism preserve raw outrage as historical document His poems register the moral ire of many during a pivotal era of Irish history leading with the poet's only weapon the word the ink trail that pain makes on the page Playing the Octopus Mary O'Malley, 2016-08-15 Joint Winner of the Michael Hartnett Poetry Award 2018 In Playing the Octopus her eighth collection of poems Mary O'Malley's sensitivity to the spirit of Ireland's west coast is as attuned as ever In a world both earthen and dreamlike bodily and mythical a trout is seen to swallow light through his skin a wolf howls the great open vowel of his need and in the emptiness where a tree once stood a tree shaped brightness dances Over the course of the collection O'Malley twins the Irish west coast with the American east coast Inis Mór with Coney Island the parish with the metropolis the pipes with the axe each offering its own comfort and wonder Sylvia Plath, Lois Lane and Antigone feature in an unlikely cast of heroines through which O'Malley tests the mythologies of motherhood and femininity no mother is ever good enough until she's dead writes the poet with characteristic wit Playing the Octopus is a body of writing buoyed by the redemptive power and sustaining joy of music and it closes with O'Malley's translations of the Irish poet Seán Róidín and the Spaniard Federico García Lorca Playing With Fire Grevel Lindop, 2011-08-01 The erotic and the sexual are richly represented in this new collection whose subjects of celebration range from the lemons in Robert Graves' garden to a blood drinking Tibetan deity At its heart are a group of passionate love poems and a sequence set in an East London strip club treated with the imaginative insight and verbal skill that led R.V. Bailey reviewing Lindop's Selected Poems to write that All the tricks in the poet's bag work for him as a master so unobtrusively that it is only at the second or third reading that you become aware that the thought and feeling are supported by an amazingly intricate web of sound This new collection will enhance Lindop's reputation for originality as well as for mastery of poetic tradition As Kathleen Raine wrote Grevel Lindop celebrates a cosmic harmony that upholds the greatest and the least parts of the universe His perspectives open on the stories within stories where what is real and what is illusory are woven together Grevel Lindop does not see the world about him as in need of improving for he sees all with the eye of love Yeats's Legacies Warwick Gould, 2018-03-22 The two great Yeats Family Sales of 2017 and the legacy of the Yeats family's 80 year tradition of generosity to Ireland's great cultural institutions provide the kaleidoscope through which these advanced research essays find their theme Hannah Sullivan's brilliant history of Yeats's versecraft challenges Poundian definitions of Modernism Denis Donoghue offers unique family memories of 1916 whilst tracing the political significance of the Easter Rising Anita Feldman addresses Yeats's responses to the Rising's appropriation of his symbols and myths the daring artistry of his ritual drama developed from Noh his poetry of personal utterance and his vision of art as a body reborn rather than a treasure preserved amid the testing of the illusions that hold civilizations together in ensuing wars Warwick Gould looks at Yeats as founding Senator in the new Free State and his valiant struggle against the literary censorship law of 1929 with its present day legacy of Irish anti blasphemy law still presenting a constitutional challenge Drawing on Gregory Estate documents James Pethica looks at the evictions which preceded Yeats's purchase of Thoor Ballylee in Galway Lauren Arrington looks back at Yeats, Ezra Pound and the Ghosts of The Winding Stair 1929 in Rapallo Having co edited both versions of A Vision Catherine Paul offers some profound reflections on Yeats and Belief Grevel Lindop provides a pioneering view of Yeats's impact on English mystical verse and on Charles Williams who while at Oxford University Press helped publish the Oxford Book of Modern Verse Stanley van der Ziel looks at the presence of Shakespeare in Yeats's Purgatory William H O'Donnell examines the vexed textual legacy of his late work On the Boiler while Gould considers the challenge Yeats's intentionalism posed for once fashionable post-structuralist editorial theory John Kelly recovers a startling autobiographical short story by Maud Gonne While nine works of current biographical textual and literary scholarship are reviewed Maud Gonne is the focus of debate for two reviewers as are Eva Gore Booth Constance and Casimir Markievicz Rudyard Kipling David Jones T S Eliot and his presence on the radio

Time, Consciousness and Writing, 2018-11-26 Time Consciousness and Writing brings together a collection of critical reflections on Peter Malekin's model of the mind which he saw as a crucial yet often neglected aspect of critical theory in relation to theatre literature and the arts The volume begins with a selection of Peter Malekin's own writings that lay out his critique of western culture its overstated claims to universal competence and validity and lays out an alternative view of consciousness that draws partly on Asian traditions and partly on underground traditions from the west The essays that follow commissioned for this volume critically examine Malekin's ideas drawing out their implications in a variety of contexts including theatre liturgical performance poetry and literature The book ends with an assessment of future prospects opened by this work
