Transnational Portuguese Studies Hilary Owen, Claire Williams, 2020-06-17 Transnational Portuguese Studies offers a radical rethinking of the role played by the concepts of nationhood and the nation in the epistemologies that underpin Portuguese Studies as an academic discipline Portuguese Studies offers a particularly rich and enlightening challenge to methodological nationalism in Modern Languages not least because the teaching of Portuguese has always extended beyond the study of the single western European country from which the language takes its name However this has rarely been analysed with explicit or critical reference to the transnational turn in Arts and Humanities This volume of essays from leading scholars in Portugal Brazil the USA and the UK explores how the histories cultures and ideas constituted in and through Portuguese language resist borders and produce encounters from the manoeuvres of 15th century globalization and cartography to present day mega events such as the Rio Olympics The result is a timely counter narrative to the workings of linguistic and cultural nationalism demonstrating how texts paintings and photobooks musical forms political ideas cinematic representations gender identities digital communications and lexical forms may travel translate and embody transcultural contact in ways which only become readable through the optics of transnationalism Contributors Ana Margarida Dias Martins Anna M Klobucka Christopher Larkosh Claire Williams Cl udia Pazos Alonso Edward King Ellen W Sapega Fernando Arenas Hilary Owen Jos Lingna Nafaf Kimberly DaCosta Holton Maria Lu sa Coelho Paulo de Medeiros Sara Ramos Pinto Sheila Moura Hue Simon Park Susana Afonso Tatiana Heise Toby Green Tori Holmes Vivien Kogut Lessa de S and Zolt n Biedermann

Mother Africa, Father Marx Hilary Owen, 2007 This book is the first work in the English language to discuss the participation of women writers in the narrative construction of Mozambican nationhood over the last half century Covering the rise of anti colonial nationalism in the 1950s the advent of the Marxist Leninist Republic in the 1970s the war that followed independence in the 1980s and the transition to democracy and the neo liberal economy in the 1990s the volume focuses on four representative women writers who belong to distinct but overlapping periods and work in different genres Dealing with Noemia de Sousa s poetry Lina Magaia s testimonial writings Lilia Momple s short fiction and Paulina Chiziane s novels the result is a close reading of the ways in which women have narrated and counter narrated Mozambican nationhood to take account of the gendered power relations that traditionally underpin national community as imagined by

Liz, Hilary Owen, 2020-03-05 Women's Cinema in Contemporary Portugal brings together scholars from Portugal UK and the USA to discuss 14 women film directors in Portugal focussing on their production in both feature film and documentary genres over the last half century. It charts the specific cinematic visions that these women have brought to the re emergence of Portuguese national cinema in the wake of the 1974 Revolution and African decolonisation and to the growing internationalisation of Portugal's arguably minor or small nation cinema with significant young women directors such as Leonor Teles achieving prominence abroad. The history of Portuguese women's cinema only begins systematically after the 1974 revolution and democratisation. This collection shows how female auteurs made their mark on Portugal's post revolutionary conceptualisation of a differently national cinema through the ethnographic output of the late 1970s. It goes on to explore women's decisively gendered interventions in the cinematic memory practices that opened up around the masculine domain of the Colonial Wars in Africa. Feminist political issues such as Portugal's 30 year abortion campaign and LGBT status have become more visible since the 1990s alongside preoccupations with global concerns relating to immigration transit and minority status communities. The book also demonstrates how women have contributed to the evolution of soundscapes, the genre of essay cinema, film's relationship to the archive and the adaptation of the written word. The result is a powerful provocative and definitive challenge to the marginalisation of Portuguese female directed film in terms of double minority.

Seeing Politics Otherwise Patricia I. Vieira, 2011-01-01 When confronting twentieth century political oppression and violence, writers and artists in Portugal and South America have often emphasized the complex relationship between freedom and tyranny. In Seeing Politics Otherwise, Patricia Vieira uses an interdisciplinary approach to explore the interrelation of politics and representations of vision and blindness in Latin American and Iberian literature, film and art. Vieira's discussion focuses on three literary works: Graciliano Ramos's Memoirs of Prison, Ariel Dorfman's Death and the Maiden, and Jos Saramago's Blindness, with supplemental analyses of sculpture and film by Ana Maria Pacheco, Bruno Barreto, and Marco Bechis. These artists use metaphors of blindness to denounce the totalizing gaze of dictatorial regimes. Rather than equating blindness with deprivation, Vieira argues that shadows, blindfolds, and blindness are necessary elements for re imagining the political world and re acquiring a political voice. Seeing Politics Otherwise offers a compelling analysis of vision and its forcible deprivation in the context of art and political protest.

Embodying Pessoa Anna Klobucka, Mark Sabine, 2007-01-01 The multifaceted and labyrinthine oeuvre of the Portuguese poet Fernando Pessoa (1888-1935) is distinguished by having been written and published under more than seventy different names. These were not mere pseudonyms but what Pessoa termed heteronyms, fully realized identities possessed not only of wildly divergent writing styles and opinions but also of detailed biographies. In many cases, their independent existences extended to their publication of letters and critical readings of each other's works and those of Pessoa himself. Long acclaimed in continental Europe and Latin America as a towering presence in literary modernism, Pessoa has more recently begun to receive the attention of an English speaking public Embodying Pessoa responds to this new growth of interest The collection s twelve essays preceded by a general introduction and grouped into four themed sections apply a range of current interpretative models both to the more familiar canon of Pessoa s output and to less familiar texts in many cases only recently published As a whole this work diverges from traditional Pessoa criticism by testifying to the importance of corporeal physicality in his heteronymous experiment and to the prominence of representations of gendered sexuality in his work Slavery Unseen Lamonte

Aidoo,2018-03-15 In Slavery Unseen Lamonte Aidoo upends the narrative of Brazil as a racial democracy showing how the myth of racial democracy elides the history of sexual violence patriarchal terror and exploitation of slaves Drawing on sources ranging from inquisition trial documents to travel accounts and literature Aidoo demonstrates how interracial and same sex sexual violence operated as a key mechanism of the production and perpetuation of slavery as well as racial and gender inequality The myth of racial democracy Aidoo contends does not stem from or reflect racial progress rather it is an antiblack apparatus that upholds and protects the heteronormative white patriarchy throughout Brazil s past and on into the present Utopias of Otherness Fernando Arenas,2003 Forges a new understanding of how these two Lusophone nations are connected The closely entwined histories of Portugal and Brazil remain key references for understanding developments past and present in either country Accordingly Fernando Arenas considers Portugal and Brazil in relation to one another in this exploration of changing definitions of nationhood subjectivity and utopias in both cultures Examining the two nations shared language and histories as well as their cultural social and political points of divergence Arenas pursues these definitive changes through the realms of literature intellectual thought popular culture and political discourse Both Brazil and Portugal are subject to the economic political and cultural forces of postmodern globalization Arenas analyzes responses to these trends in contemporary writers including Jose Saramago Caio Fernando Abreu Maria Isabel Barreno Vergilio Ferreira Clarice Lispector and Maria Gabriela Llansol Ultimately Utopias of Otherness shows how these writers have redefined the concept of nationhood not only through their investment in utopian or emancipatory causes such as Marxist revolution women s liberation or sexual revolution but also by shifting their attention to alternative modes of conceiving the ethical and political realms Caetano Veloso's A Foreign Sound Barbara Browning,2017-09-07 What makes a song sound foreign What makes it sound American or Brazilian Caetano Veloso s 2004 American songbook album A Foreign Sound is a meditation on these questions but in truth they were questions he d been asking throughout his career Properly heard the album throws a wrench into received ideas regarding the global hegemony of US popular music and also what constitutes the Brazilian sound This book takes listeners back through some of Veloso s earlier considerations of American popular music and forward to his more recent experiments in order to explore his take on the relationship between US and Brazilian musical idioms 33 1 3 Global a series related to but independent from 33 1 3 takes the format of the original series of short music basedbooks and brings the focus to music throughout the world With initial volumes focusing on Japanese and
