Liquid Royal Academy Schools Gallery (London),2006 See What You're Missing Will Gompertz,2023-04-04

Taking us into the minds of artists from contemporary stars to old masters See What You're Missing shows us how to look and experience the world with their heightened awareness Artists are expert lookers they have learned to pay attention The rest of us spend most of our time on auto pilot rushing from place to place our overfamiliarity blinding us to the marvellous life affirming phenomena of our world But that doesn't have to be the case In his inimitable engaging style Will Gompertz takes us into the minds of artists from contemporary stars to old masters the well known to the lesser so and from around the world to show us how to look and experience the world with their heightened awareness In See What You're Missing we learn for example how Hasegawa Tohaku can help us to see beauty how David Hockney helps us to see colour and how Frida Kahlo can help us see pain In doing so we come to know the exhilarating feeling of being truly alive See What You're Missing is at once entertaining and enlightening art history while delivering empowering new insights to its reader

After Modernist Painting Craig Staff,2025-01-23 This book presents both a historical survey and a critical re evaluation of the contested and contingent nature of the medium of painting over the last 60 years Offering a critical account of painting specifically rather than art more generally After Modernist Painting provides a timely exploration of what has remained a persistent and protean medium Taking Clement Greenberg's Modernist Painting as its starting point the book focuses on certain developments including the relationship of painting to Conceptual Art and Minimalism the pronouncement of painting's alleged death its response to Installation Art's foregrounding of site how painting both images and imagines the digital and how it continues to embody a particular set of ideas and responses to the world Revised and expanded to reflect developments in the field since the first edition was published in 2013 After Modernist Painting addresses a range of global artists and painting practices from the Dansaekhwa art movement in South Korea to the Conceptualism of Geta Bratescu in 1970s Romania Essential reading for students on fine arts painting courses the book is an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand the themes and issues that have pertained to painting within the context of postmodernism and contemporary artistic practice and also provides a valuable starting point for other more specialized histories of particular painters

The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers,2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history challenging dominant presumptions about the field Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of in this instance African peoples as well as their patterns of movement from the mid twentieth century onwards Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross fertilization interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between for example Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history the various branches of African studies African American studies African Diaspora studies Caribbean studies and Latin American studies Women Artists
