

I'll tell you the story (after first apologizing) of how I came back to Denmark so strangely and suddenly.

Hamlet."

What does this mean? Has everyone else come back too? Or is it all a lie—and no one has yet returned?

LAERTES

Do you recognize the handwriting?

CLAUDIUS

It's Hamlet's writing. "Naked," he says. And in a P.S. he adds, "alone." Can you help me out with this?

LAERTES

I have no choice, my lord. But let him come. It warms my weary heart to think I'll get the chance to look him in the eye and say, "You did this."

CLAUDIUS

If that's how you feel, Laertes—and why shouldn't you? Will you let me guide and direct you?

LAERTES

Yes, my lord, as long as you won't lead me toward peace.

CLAUDIUS

No, just toward your own peace of mind. If he's come back to Denmark without plans to continue on his trip, then I'll trick him into an undertaking, which I'm working out now, that's sure to kill him. When he dies, no one will be blamed, even his mother will call it an accident.

LAERTES

My lord, I'll let you make the decision. I only ask to be in on your plans, the agent of his death.

Laertes is looking forward to seeing Hamlet→ chance for revenge.

Laertes will listen to Claudius' advice as long as he does not try to make him forgive Hamlet.

Claudius has a plan that will make Hamlet's death look like an accident.
