Jaap Van De Overhaal:

Delta Urbanism: New Orleans Richard Campanella, 2017-11-08 This volume of APA's Delta Urbanism series traces the development of New Orleans from precolonial times to post Katrina realities in the context of the deltaic plain on which it lies. The book describes the underlying physical terrain and covers the various transformations humans have made to it: site selection, settlement, urbanization, population expansion, drainage, protection, exploitation, devastation, and recovery. What New Orleans has experienced foretells what similar cities will be tackling in years to come. Kill Your Masters Jaap van der Doelen, 2024-12-01 All the unwritten rules of rap say it doesn't happen like this. Yet Killer Mike, a Black man from Atlanta, Georgia, and El P, a white man from Brooklyn, New York, have transformed what should have been the twilight of their careers as rappers into their biggest spotlight yet. Known as the hip hop duo Run The Jewels, they have headlined festivals worldwide, become action figures, and Marvel comic book characters spearheaded a worldwide countercultural movement and played a significant role in the last two presidential elections. This is the buddy movie-like story of how they got there. It is a tale that parallels the incredible changes the music industry has gone through over the past twenty-five years, charting a course from the highs around the turn of the century to the collapse of the CD format and the eventual rise of streaming media, while also mapping the evolution of both pop culture and its sociopolitical climate. From the surging popularity of afrofuturism and the fall of the Twin Towers to the rise of the Black Lives Matter movement and the kneeling of Colin Kaepernick, such events all tie into how their budding bromance transformed Killer Mike and El P from solo artists in underground hip hop to pop cultural icons recognized all over the globe.

Resolutien van de Heeren Staten van Hollandt ende Westvrieslandt, Stemmen des tijds, 1915 Soft Skills in Education Jaap Scheerens, Greetje van der Werf, Hester de Boer, 2020-08-25 This book examines the global movement of putting more emphasis on students' social and emotional development in education. It provides some order in the unstructured multitude of desirable socio-emotional educational objectives and ambitions that have resulted from this movement and builds on a careful conceptual analysis. It starts out by examining the roots of the movement and discusses different emphases. Next, it makes use of instructional and psychological constructs and theories to arrive at meaningful categorizations of major domains and types of social-emotional skills. One of the key assumptions is that social and emotional attributes are malleable by means of educational interventions. The book reviews available research evidence for this assumption, taking into account psychological studies and meta-analyses. It then creates new evidence based on a new meta-analysis which concentrated on the effects of educational interventions on skills associated with the conscientiousness factor of the Big5 taxonomy. In the final chapter, the book discusses the implications for educational policy and practice, a discussion in which attention is given to political and ethical questions about the desirability of treating social and emotional attributes as educational goals. The Psychology of Power Jaap van Ginneken, 2014-11-25 The author tests the hypothesis that hubris and the Bathsheba syndrome tend to affect all top leaders.

by zooming in on the best known and very highest executives of our own day and age and examines the psychological forces tugging at the top level of political leadership
