Jaffa Shared And Shattered Contrived Coexistence In Israelpalestine:

Jaffa Shared and Shattered Daniel Monterescu, 2015-08-24 Binational cities play a pivotal role in situations of long term conflict and few places have been more marked by the tension between intimate proximity and visceral hostility than Jaffa one of the mixed towns of Israel Palestine In this nuanced ethnographic and historical study Daniel Monterescu argues that such places challenge our assumptions about cities and nationalism calling into question the Israeli state s policy of maintaining homogeneous segregated and ethnically stable spaces Analyzing everyday interactions life stories and histories of violence he reveals the politics of gentrification and the circumstantial coalitions that define the city Drawing on key theorists in anthropology sociology urban studies and political science he outlines a new relational theory of sociality and spatiality Home, History and Possession in Israel-Palestine Tovi Fenster, 2024-09-05 Taking a micro geographical approach to Israeli Palestinian relations this book analyses the history of space and place in West Jerusalem and Jaffa in the context of specific addresses Based on the unique and innovative archaeology of addresses methodology the book provides an in depth analysis of 11 specific sites This micro perspective paying particular attention to the history and past ownership of an individual property allows the author to draw new insights into the process of population exchange that took place in 1948 when Jewish people began to populate Palestinian deserted homes after the Nakba By looking at archival planning documents the histories of addresses as contact zones between previous and current owners are revealed Moreover the research on each address highlights new theoretical understandings encompassing the micro politics of the contact zone mediated agonism ruinations and beginnings creative destruction in urban planning the right to the city and the right to return the violence of property and fragmented settler colonialism The book concludes by proposing practical applications of the research in teaching and planning practice The book will prove important reading for students and researchers interested in urban planning Middle Eastern geography and the history of the Israeli Palestinian conflict CITIES IN EVOLUTION. DIACHRONIC TRANSFORMATIONS OF URBAN AND RURAL SETTLEMENTS Book of abstracts VIII AACCP (Architecture, Archaeology and Contemporary City Planning) symposium Alessandro Camiz, Zeynep Ceylanlı, Zeren Önsel Atala, Özge Özkuvancı, 2021-01-11 CITIES IN EVOLUTION DIACHRONIC TRANSFORMATIONS OF URBAN AND RURAL SETTLEMENTS Book of abstracts VIII AACCP Architecture Archaeology and Contemporary City Planning symposium 2021 Edited by Alessandro Camiz Zeynep Ceylanlı Zeren nsel Atala and zge zkuvanc DRUM Press Istanbul 2021 ISBN 978 1 716 22187 3 Activist Pedagogy and Shared Education in Divided Societies, 2022-02-14 Collaborative engagement between activist academics from Israel and Northern Ireland highlighted the challenges and potential of working through education to promote shared learning and shared life in divided societies Following these initial explorations the volume brought together educationalists from Europe the United States and South Africa to widen the range of experience and insights and broaden the base of the conversation The result is this book on the role of shared education not only in deeply divided societies but also in places where minorities face discrimination where migrants face prejudice and barriers or where society fails to deal positively with cultural diversity Together the contributors challenged themselves to develop theoretical and practical paradigms based on practical knowledge and experience to promote activist pedagogies Their shared purpose was to work for more humane just and democratic societies in which education offers genuine hope for sustained transformational change The four main themes around which the book is organized are educating for democratic multicultural citizenship models of shared learning nurturing intercultural competencies and reconciling dialogue in the face of conflicting narratives The book draws on a wide range of international perspectives and insights to identify practical strategies for change in local contexts

Stone Men Andrew Ross, 2021-04-06 Winner of the 2019 Palestine Book Awards

They demolish our houses while we build theirs This is how a Palestinian stonemason in line at a checkpoint outside a Jerusalem suburb described his life to Andrew Ross Palestinian stone men using some of the best quality limestone deposits in the world and drawing on generations of artisanal knowledge have built almost every state in the Middle East except one of their own Today the business of quarrying cutting fabricating and dressing is the Occupied Territories largest private employer and generator of revenue and supplies the construction industry in Israel along with other countries in the region and overseas Ross's engrossing surprising and gracefully written story of this fascinating ancient trade shows how the stones of historic Palestine and Palestinian labor have been used to build the state of Israel in the process constructing facts on the ground even while the industry is central to Palestinians own efforts to erect bulwarks against the Occupation For more than a century the hands that built Israel's houses schools offices bridges and even its separation barriers have been Palestinian Looking at the Palestinian Israeli conflict in a new light this book largely based on field interviews in the region asks how this record of labor and achievement can and should be recognized

Emplaced Resistance in Palestine and Israel Marion Lecoquierre, 2021-11-18 The Israeli Palestinian conflict gravitates constantly around the question of territorial control due to the settler colonial principle present at the core of the Zionist project Acknowledging space as a central tool of domination used by the Israeli authorities this volume sheds light on the way space can become both a resource for and an outcome of protest with an emphasis placed on the way it is used and produced through practices of resistance by subaltern groups The research relies on a comparative approach relying on data collected in the course of fieldwork conducted between 2012 and 2015 in Palestine and Israel It focuses on three sites of contention which include the H2 area in Hebron the occupied Old City under Israeli authority the core neighbourhoods of Silwan Wadi Hilwe and al Bustan and the unrecognized Bedouin village of al Araqib in the Negev desert Through these three case studies the book tackles different strategies that engage with the materiality of space place sense of place territory landscape network and scale showing the mobilization of a real spatial repertoire of contention The different regimes of control give rise to strategies that are first and foremost emplaced i.e. rooted in the local Providing an original comparison between flashpoints of the Palestinian resistance against the Israeli politics of dispossession and expulsion the book is a key resource for scholars and readers interested in political geography political science sociology and the Israel Palestine conflict Politics and Minor Literature ,2025-06-24 Politics and Minor Literature offers the first global and transcultural critical intervention of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari's concept of minor literature Taking their study on Kafka as the point of departure the authors in this collected volume travel historically geographically conceptually and linguistically to examine the ways in which minor literature flourishes as a nomadic concept since the publication of Deleuze and Guattari's work The contributions in this volume extend Deleuze and Guattari's analysis to authors beyond Kafka in multilingual and translingual contexts to the work of poetry to historically informed works taking place on the border of territories and to examinations of distant and disparate ways of imagining collectivity Each contribution offers a way of imagining how minor literature appears and acts in the world today Enhancing Values of Dignity, Democracy, and Diversity in Higher Education Tamar Ketko,Hana Bor,Khalid Arar,2022-09-30 Contesting a gradual disregard for the values of Dignity Democracy and Diversity in higher education this volume explores best practices from universities and colleges in Israel and the USA to illustrate how these values can offer a holistic values framework for higher education globally Presenting a range of interdisciplinary chapters from fields including history philosophy memorial studies cultural political gender and religious studies the text considers how these values can be reflected in policy and practice across all areas of the university including teaching and learning admissions students affairs staff well being and institutional identity The volume highlights constructive theories experimental models and case studies that collectively inform a holistic framework for moral ethical and equitable higher education worldwide Offering key insights into the relevant discourse regarding local and global events that have impacted both Israelis and Americans this volume will appeal to researchers in the fields of higher education sociology of education and philosophy of education as well as postgraduates and scholars with interests in the transformation of higher education in light of contemporary times and challenges Intoxicating Zion Haggai Ram,2023-05-25 Masterfully illuminates the social and cultural fissures left by colonialism in the Levant as hashish trade transgressed new national borders Paul Gootenberg Stony Brook University author of Andean Cocaine The Making of a Global Drug When European powers carved political borders across the Middle East following World War I a curious event in the international drug trade occurred Palestine became the most important hashish waystation in the region and a thriving market for consumption British and French colonial authorities utterly failed to control the illicit trade raising questions about the legitimacy of their mandatory regimes The creation of the Israeli state too had little effect to curb illicit trade By the 1960s drug trade had become a major point of contention in the Arab Israeli conflict and drug use widespread Intoxicating Zion is the first book to tell the story of hashish in Mandatory Palestine and Israel Trafficking use and regulation race gender and class colonialism and nation building all weave together in Haggai Ram's social history of the drug from the 1920s to the aftermath of the 1967 War The hashish trade encompassed smugglers international gangs residents law enforcers and political actors and Ram traces these flows through the interconnected realms of cross border politics economics and culture Hashish use was and is a marker of belonging and difference and its history offers readers a unique glimpse into how the modern Middle East was made A fascinating and revelatory tale Ted R Swedenburg University of Arkansas A singular original work of research Yossi Melman Haaretz Informative though pun intended sobering this book is suited for academic libraries Hallie Cantor Association of Jewish Libraries Reviews

Twilight Nationalism Daniel Monterescu, Haim Hazan, 2018-06-26 The city of Jaffa presents a paradox intimate neighbors who are political foes The official Jewish national tale proceeds from exile to redemption and nation building while the Palestinians is one of a golden age cut short followed by dispossession and resistance The experiences of Jaffa's Jewish and Arab residents however reveal lives and nationalist sentiments far more complex Twilight Nationalism shares the stories of ten of the city's elders women and men rich and poor Muslims Jews and Christians to radically deconstruct these national myths and challenge common understandings of belonging and alienation Through the stories told at life's end Daniel Monterescu and Haim Hazan illuminate how national affiliation ultimately gives way to existential circumstances Similarities in lives prove to be shaped far more by socioeconomic class age and gender than national allegiance and intersections between stories usher in a politics of existence in place of politics of identity In offering the real stories individuals tell about themselves this book reveals shared perspectives too long silenced and new understandings of local community previously lost in nationalist narratives

Food, Senses and the City Ferne Edwards, Roos Gerritsen, Grit Wesser, 2021-03-23 This work explores diverse cultural understandings of food practices in cities through the senses drawing on case studies in the Americas Asia Australia and Europe The volume includes the senses within the popular field of urban food studies to explore new understandings of how people live in cities and how we can understand cities through food It reveals how the senses can provide unique insight into how the city and its dwellers are being reshaped and understood Recognising cities as diverse and dynamic places the book provides a wide range of case studies from food production to preparation and mediatization through to consumption These relationships are interrogated through themes of belonging and homemaking to discuss how food memory and materiality connect and disrupt past present and future imaginaries As cities become larger busier and more crowded this volume contributes to actual and potential ways that the senses can generate new understandings of how people live together in cities This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of critical food studies urban studies and socio cultural anthropology

Linguistic Landscapes Beyond the Language Classroom Greg Niedt, Corinne A. Seals, 2020-12-10 Linguistic landscapes can play an important role in educating individuals beyond formal pedagogical environments This book argues that anywhere can be a space for people to learn from displayed texts images and other communicated signs and consequently a space where teachable cultural moments are created Following language learning trajectories that exit through the language classroom into city streets public offices museums and monuments this volume presents innovative work demonstrating that anyone can learn from the linguistic landscape that surrounds them Offering a bridge between theoretical research and practical application chapters consider how we make sense of places by understanding how the landscape is used to express claim and contest identities and ideologies In this way Linguistic Landscapes Beyond the Language Classroom highlights the unexpected potential of the informal settings for learning and for teachers to expand their students intercultural experience

Culture and Conflict in Palestine/Israel Tamir Sorek, 2021-12-26 While the scholarly study of culture as a politically contested sphere in Palestine Israel has become an established field over the past two decades this volume highlights some particular understudied aspects of it the relations between Arab identity Mizrahi identity and Israeli nationalism the nightclub scene as a field of encounter appropriation and exclusion an analysis of the institutional and political conditions of Palestinian cinema the implications of the intersectional relationship between gender ethnicity and national identity in the field of popular culture and the concrete relations between particular aesthetic forms and symbolic power The authors come from diverse disciplines including anthropology architecture ethnomusicology history sociology and political science The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Canadian Readings of Jewish History Daniel Maoz, Esti Mayer, 2023-03-11 This book takes the reader through a genealogical embodied journey explaining how our historical context through various expressions of language culture knowledge pedagogy and power has created and perpetuated oppression of marginalised identities throughout history The volume is in essence a social justice initiative in that it shines a spotlight on elitist forms of knowledge and their attached privileged protectors As such the reader will unavoidably reflect on their own pre conceived meanings and culturally inherent notions while engaging with these pages and in so doing open a third space where new forms of knowledge that may transcend time and space can evolve into endless possibilities It is these possibilities of expanding the nuanced meanings of evolving knowledge fluid lifestyles and of a dynamic connection to humanity and God which make this book contextually relevant in our post modern landscape It un situates philosophies which have traditionally been unknowingly situated and in so doing propels the reader to re interpret discourse and recreate taken for granted universal truths

Jewish Revival Inside Out Daniel Monterescu, Rachel Werczberger, 2022-12-13 This volume explores the global transformations of contemporary Jewishness which give renewed meaning to identity tradition and politics in our post secular world

The Politics of Sacred Places Nimrod Luz, 2023-09-07 The Politics of Sacred Places is a study of the socio political dimensions of sacred sites in Israel Palestine drawing on over 20 years of in depth ethnographic research which introduces cutting edge theories on secularization struggles for recognition and diversity issues This book focuses on contemporary sacred sites and their socio political meanings for minorities within a hegemonic and a secularizing state system It argues that sacred places provide a space that is less scrutinized by the state and where alternative visions of the socio political may be produced A plethora of sites and case studies are examined including the rural shrine of Maqam abu al Hijja in the lower Galilee the

Mosque of Hassan Bek in the heart of Tel Aviv Jaffa and the most disputed sacred place in the region the Haram al Sharif in Jerusalem These sites are explored through mostly a phenomenological lens and in various contexts from the individual body to the global This book offers a critical analytical study of the socio political aspects of sacred sites in contemporary societies within the broader understanding of scale and the spatial turn in the study of religion Historical Dictionary of Israel

Bernard Reich, David H. Goldberg, 2016-08-30 Since its creation the State of Israel has been a magnet for attention A country beset by conflict in its region and faced with the need to integrate mainly Jewish immigrants of disparate backgrounds into a modern and advanced democratic state and society Israel has preoccupied observers scholars and journalists since its independence in May 1948 Although a Jewish state Israel is also a democratic state that guarantees the rights of all of its citizens including its large Arab and Moslem minority in law and in practice Israel and its modern history and politics have been the subject of substantial and often highly partisan literature being hotly and vigorously debated both at home and abroad This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Israel contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1100 cross referenced entries on significant persons places events government institutions political parties and battles as well as entries on Israel's economy society and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the various diplomatic and political personalities institutions organizations events concepts and documents that together define the political life of the Jewish state of Israel

Settler-Indigeneity in the West Bank Rachel Z. Feldman, Ian McGonigle, 2023-10-15 Since Israel conquered the West Bank formerly held by Jordan in 1967 over 400 000 settlers have moved into the territory In recent years Israeli settler organizations and allied American Jewish lobbyists have responded to international condemnation of the occupation by mobilizing narratives of indigeneity claiming sovereign and divine rights to the land Settler Indigeneity in the West Bank asks what Israeli settlers mean when they say they are indigenous how settler indigeneity is felt performed and mediated and what the implications of indigeneity claims are on the international stage Building on foundational scholarship that has come out of post colonial and indigeneity studies the volume theorizes settler indigeneity as a cultural phenomenon and product of transnational settler colonial histories while also interrogating the dialectic of settler and indigenous to illustrate their co constitution Considering agriculture clothing food language and religious practices the chapters explore how feelings of indigeneity are fashioned and how these feelings continue to transform the landscape of the West Bank Offering a series of original ethnographic accounts of these cultures and communities Settler Indigeneity in the West Bank intimately documents and discusses the processes of settler nativization in conversation with a variety of related literature in anthropology cultural studies Israel studies religious studies and settler colonial studies Entangled Histories in Palestine/Israel Dafna Hirsch, 2024-04-16 This edited volume offers a new critical approach to the study of Zionist history and Israeli Palestinian relations based on the encounter between history and anthropology Informed by the anthropological method of setting large questions to intimate settings the book examines processes of Zionist colonization nation building and Palestinian dispossession by focusing on encounters between members of different national religious and ethnic groups from below through paying close attention to life stories and reconstructing everyday practices and micro histories of places and communities Thus it tells a complex story in which the practices of historical actors are not simply reducible to a single underlying logic of colonization even as they participate in the production and reproduction of colonial structures This approach effectively undermines the prevailing tendency to study national communities in isolation projecting onto the past an essentialist and rigid separation Rather than assuming two clearly bounded and monolithic national groups caught from the start in perpetual conflict this volume probes their historical production through their evolving relationships and their varied and shifting political social economic and cultural manifestations The book will be of interest to students and researchers in an array of fields including the history of Israeli Palestinian relations anthropological perspectives on settler colonialism and Zionism

Established and Outsiders at the Same Time Gabriele Rosenthal, 2016 Palestinians frequently present a harmonizing and homogenizing we image of their own national we group as a way of counteracting Israeli attempts to sow divisions among them whether through Israeli politics or through the dominant public discourse in Israel However a closer look reveals the fragility of this homogenizing we image which masks a variety of internal tensions and conflicts By applying methods and concepts from biographical research and figurational sociology the articles in this volume offer an analysis of the Middle East conflict that goes beyond the polar opposition between Israelis and Palestinians On the basis of case studies from five urban regions in Palestine and Israel Bethlehem Ramallah East Jerusalem Haifa and Jaffa the authors explore the importance of belonging collective self images and different forms of social differentiation within Palestinian communities For each region this is bound up with an analysis of the relevant social and socio political contexts and family and life histories The analysis of locally different figurations means focusing on the perspective of Palestinians as members of different religious socio economic political or generational groupings and local group constellations for instance between Christians and Muslims or between long time residents and refugees The following scholars have contributed to this volume Ahmed Albaba Johannes Becker Hendrik Hinrichsen Gabriele Rosenthal Nicole Witte Arne Worm and Rixta Wundrak
