Handbook For Arabic Language Teaching Professionals In The 21st Century:

Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century Kassem Wahba, Zeinab A. Taha, Liz England, 2014-06-03 This landmark volume offers an introduction to the field of teaching Arabic as a foreign or second language. Recent growth in student numbers and the demand for new and more diverse Arabic language programs of instruction have created a need that has outpaced the ability of teacher preparation programs to provide sufficient numbers of well qualified professional teachers at the level of skill required. Arabic language program administrators anticipate that the increases in enrollment will continue into the next decades. More resources and more varied materials are seriously needed in Arabic teacher education and training. The goal of this Handbook is to address that need. The most significant feature of this volume is its pioneer role in approaching the field of Arabic language teaching from many different perspectives. It offers readers the opportunity to consider the role, status and content of Arabic language teaching in the world today. The Handbook is intended as a resource to be used in building Arabic language and teacher education programs and in guiding future academic research. Thirty four chapters authored by leaders in the field are organized around nine themes: Background of Arabic Language Teaching; Contexts of Arabic Language Teaching; Communicative Competence in Arabic; The Learners; Assessment; Technology Applications; Curriculum Development; Design and Models; Arabic Language Program Administration and Management; and Planning for the Future of Arabic Language Learning and Teaching. The Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century will benefit and be welcomed by Arabic language teacher educators and trainers, administrators, graduate students and scholars around the world. It is intended to create dialogue among scholars and professionals in the field and in related fields; dialogue that will contribute to creating new models for curriculum and course design; materials and assessment tools; and ultimately better instructional effectiveness for all Arabic learners everywhere in both Arabic speaking and non Arabic speaking countries. Handbook for Arabic

Drawing on the collective expertise of language scholars and educators in a variety of subdisciplines, the Handbook for Arabic Language Teaching Professionals in the 21st Century Volume II provides a comprehensive treatment of teaching and research in Arabic as a second and foreign language worldwide. Keeping a balance among theory, research and practice, the content is organized around 12 themes: Trends and Recent Issues in Teaching and Learning Arabic; Social, Political and Educational Contexts of Arabic Language Teaching and Learning; Identifying Core Issues in Practice; Language Variation; Communicative Competence and Using Frames in Arabic Language Teaching and Learning; Arabic Programs: Goals, Design and Curriculum; Teaching and Learning Approaches: Content Based Instruction and Curriculum; Arabic Teaching and Learning Classroom Language Materials and Language Corpora; Assessment, Testing and Evaluation; Methodology of Teaching Arabic Skills and Components; Teacher Education and Professional Development; Technology Mediated Teaching and Learning; Future Directions. The field faces new challenges since the publication of Volume I, including increasing and diverse demands, motives and needs for learning Arabic across various contexts of use, a need for accountability and academic research given the growing recognition of the complexity and diverse contexts of teaching Arabic, and an increasing shortage of and need for quality of instruction. Volume II addresses these challenges. It is designed to generate a dialogue continued from Volume I among professionals in the field, leading to improved practice and to facilitate interactions not only among individuals but also among educational institutions within a single country and across different countries. Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language Andrea Facchin, 2025-10-01

Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language concentrates on the origins, developments and current directions of the discipline Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language (TAFL) within the Arab world.

and partially outside of it during the last 60 years namely between 1958 and 2018 Considered in this volume are the most influential scholars authors educators and those significant works that have contributed to the development of the discipline In addition special attention is paid to the TAFL institutes regarded as epicenters of TAFL activities and important meetings that allow scholars to gather around the same table and discuss approaches trends and methods used in the field All of these aspects converge in one comprehensive study which is enriched by a narration of the main sociopolitical changes that have affected the Middle East in latter day history Arabic as One Language Mahmoud Al-Batal,2017-12-04 For decades students learning the Arabic language have begun with Modern Standard Arabic MSA and then transitioned to learning spoken Arabic While the MSA first approach neither reflects the sociolinguistic reality of the language nor gives students the communicative skills required to fully function in Arabic the field continues to debate the widespread adoption of this approach Little research or evidence has been presented about the effectiveness of integrating dialect in the curriculum With the recent publication of textbooks that integrate dialect in the Arabic curriculum however a more systematic analysis of such integration is clearly becoming necessary In this seminal volume Mahmoud Al Batal gathers key scholars who have implemented integration to present data and research on the method s success The studies address curricular models students outcomes and attitudes of students and teachers using integration in their curricula This volume is an essential resource for all teachers of Arabic language and those working in Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language TAFL
