Parenting, Infancy, Culture Marc H. Bornstein,2022-01-10 This vital volume advances an in depth understanding of how parenting infants in the first year of life is similar and different in two contrasting contexts in each of five countries Argentina Belgium Israel Italy and the United States providing a global understanding of parenting across cultures
 Edited and written by Marc H Bornstein and his country collaborators the chapters presented compare microanalytic approaches to three topical issues in each of two cultural groups in each country
 The three issues concern first how often and how long mothers in each of the groups in each of the countries engage in basic parenting practices and how often and how long infants in the same groups engage in different behaviors
 Second whether the maternal parenting practices are organized in any way and whether those infant behaviors are organized in any way
 And third whether those maternal parenting practices and those infant behaviors are interrelated
 Thus this book offers insights into the basics of parenting and infancy from both intra cultural and cross cultural perspectives
 Each country chapter is co

authored by a contributor native to the country examined ensuring an authentic cultural perspectives on parenting and infancy Together the chapters provide a broader sample that is more generalizable to a wider range of the world s population than is typical in most parenting and infancy research Parenting Infancy Culture is essential reading for researchers and students of parenting psychology human development family studies sociology and cultural anthropology as well as professionals working with families
