Influence Without Authority Allan R. Cohen, David L. Bradford, 2017-10-02 Get what you need to achieve your objectives and produce results. Influence Without Authority is the classic guide to getting what you need from people you don't control. Getting things done requires collaboration, and convincing others to contribute requires political skill. This book introduces the Exchange Model, in which you get what you need by offering something of value in return. The key lies in knowing what the other person values, that's their currency, and it's your immediate tool for coaxing their cooperation. This model has been proven over decades as organizations around the world have turned away from frustration and resignation toward collaboration and results. This book shows you how to implement the Exchange Model at the personal, team, and organizational level to raise the bar for performance and leadership. This new third edition has been updated to reflect the changing face of the workplace and includes new examples and information on geographically dispersed virtual teams. Supplementary materials facilitate classroom and training use with discussions, role-play videos, and other ancillaries that deepen understanding and promote practical application. Get what you need from the people who have it through mutual exchange. Think in terms of interest and pinpoint the currencies other people trade in. Apply the Exchange Model across

The Purpose and Power of Authority Myles Munroe,2010-12-03 In Understanding the Purpose and Power of Authority best selling author Dr Myles Munroe turns the widely accepted but counterfeit concept of authority upside down Then he reveals God s original intent showing us how to live in the freedom of our own personal authority in God s great design and to respond positively to the inherent authority of others Many people view authority as something oppressive stifling and even fearful All of us hate to be controlled or manipulated Our negative concepts and experiences of authority produce life draining emotions fear distrust suspicion friction defensiveness antagonism stress worry and dread Others have a limited perspective of what authority means believing that only people who reach a certain level in life can exercise it They don't believe they could ever be called to a place of authority The truth is we were all created for authority and we are all answerable to the authority of others Authority is what we're authorized to do by our inherent purposes You have a God given calling to develop your own personal authority to carry out your unique purpose in life English
