J Krishnamurti Relationships To Oneself To Others To The World:

Relationships To Oneself To Others To the World To Oneself J Krishnamurti, 2012-08-08 The passages in this Study Book have been taken directly from Krishnamurti's talks and books from 1933 through 1967. The compilers began by reading all the passages from this period which contained the word action, the theme of this book. This would not have been possible without the use of a full-text computer database produced by the Krishnamurti Foundation Trust of England. Over 750 passages were studied in all, and the aspects of action most frequently addressed by Krishnamurti were noted. These aspects then formed the outline for the contents of this book. The material selected has not been altered from the way it was originally printed except for limited correction of spelling, punctuation, and missing words. Words or phrases that appear in brackets are not Krishnamurti's but have been added by the compilers for the sake of clarity. Ellipses introducing a passage or ending it indicate that the passage begins or ends in mid-sentence. Ellipses in the course of a passage indicate words or sentences omitted. A series of asterisks between paragraphs shows that there are paragraphs from that talk which have been omitted. Captions set off from the body of the text have been used with many passages. Most captions are statements taken directly from the text, with some being a combination of phrases from the passage. Krishnamurti spoke from such a large perspective that his entire vision was implied in any extended passage. If one wishes to see how a statement flows out of his whole discourse, one can find the full context from the references at the foot of each passage. These refer primarily to talks which have been published in The Collected Works of J Krishnamurti. This seventeen-volume set covers the entire period from which this study book has been drawn. A complete bibliography is included at the end of this book. Students and scholars may also be interested in additional passages on action not used in the book, available for study upon written request in the archives of the Krishnamurti Foundation of America. This Study Book aims to give the reader as comprehensive a view as possible in 140 pages of the question of action as explored by Krishnamurti during the period covered. Most of the material presented has not been previously published except in the Verbatim Reports which were produced privately in limited numbers primarily for those who attended Krishnamurti's talks.

The Collected Works of J. Krishnamurti Jiddu Krishnamurti, J. Krishnamurti, 1991 In this volume Krishnamurti takes great care to elucidate this necessity of a revolution within our consciousness where the problem lies before we expect any kind of revolutionary change outside of ourselves Krishnamurti posits that if the politicians and scientists wanted to end starvation in the world it could be done It could be done but they are not going to do it as long as their thinking is based on nationalism on motives of their own personal profit And even if this far reaching outward change were brought about it seems to me that the problem is much deeper The problem is not merely starvation war the brutality of man to man it is the crisis in our own consciousness Fundamentally the problem lies within p 295 *J. Krishnamurti, 2022-09-09 The answer to the question What are you Seeking is simple We want to find truth God everlasting peace The real question says Krishnamurti is Why do you seek at all Knowing conflict repression self doubt and fear as consistent companions we naturally wish for them to come to an end So begins the search for relief the search for everlasting peace through ideas religions self help self analysis etc and we think of this search as a right action towards finding what we are looking for But do we know what we are looking for or are we merely seeking relief from what is happening presently Are we seeking at that point only an idea the supposed opposite of the emotion that we are experiencing now It is the search that maintains the present emotion and its projected opposite in a state of mutually co existent conflict inherently J.
