The Gospel for a World of Sin Henry Van Dyke, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from The Gospel for a World of Sin A Companion Volume to the Gospel for an Age of Doubt This book is not meant to present a theory of the Atonement On the contrary it is meant to teach that there is no theory broad or deep enough to embrace or explain the fact A sinful world cannot possibly know all that is needed to reconcile it with a holy God Sin itself in its root and in its relations contains a mystery So does love But the Atonement is the work of God's love in its bearing upon man's sin Therefore it must include more than we can explain What Christ did to take away the sin of the world was precisely all that was needed neither more nor less What we know of this need is what we know about the Atonement One man sees one segment of the circle more clearly Another man sees another segment About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The American Catalogue, 1901 American national trade bibliography Book Reviews, 1899 In the Highest Degree: Volume One P. H. Brazier, 2018-10-31 The theological and philosophical works of C S Lewis were grounded in the argument from reason As such reason is a form of revelation that predates nature and relates to the divine the Word of God Christ the Logos These essays provide some understanding of the essentials to Lewis's philosophical theology that is the essentia in the highest degree Lewis's corpus can seem disparate but here we find unity in his aims objectives and methodology a consistency that demonstrates the deep roots of his philosophical theology in Scripture in Greek philosophy patristic and medieval theology and in some of the Reformers all framed by a reasoned discipline from a perceptive and critical mind method and form content and reason for the glory of God Here is the essentia of Lewis's thinking From an analysis of reason through a theoretically unified proposition for atonement to the evidence of Christ as the light of the world across human endeavors and religions to a doctrine of election to an understanding of Scripture to the Philosophy of the Incarnation as Lewis termed it through fundamental arguments with various modern liberal theologians we find evidence for the actuality of the incarnation the divinity of Christ
