Persuasive Speech Graphic Organizer

Introduction

Fill in each box with the required information.
By completing this organizer, you will have the majority of your speech finished and ready to present.

Hook/Lead-In Statement - Introduction of Topic:

The Hook or Lead-in might (1) provide an anecdote or example that helps to illustrate your topic, (2) use an interesting detail, statistic or quote or (3) ask a provocative question. Regardless of your approach, you will need to lead the audience know about the broad subject of your speech.

Your introduction should start on a general level with a hook to draw the audience in and gradually focus in on the specific topic of the speech. In the introduction, the listener should find the main idea of the speech expressed in a thesis statement. Also in the introduction, the reader should be able to tell what specific points supporting the thesis will be discussed and in what order they will be developed.

Three Main Points: The three points of your speech that back up your thesis statement. You should introduce them in your introduction.

Thesis Statement: What you are trying to prove in your speech.

Now to move on to your first point...
