Creation of Ideas Judith Seligson, 2021-03-08 Gaps and the Creation of Ideas An Artist s Book is a portrait of the space between things whether they be neurons quotations comic book frames or fragments in a collage This twenty year project is an artist s book that juxtaposes quotations and images from hundreds of artists and writers with the author s own thoughts Using Adobe InDesign for composition and layout the author has structured the book to show analogies among disparate texts and images There have always been gaps but a focus on the space between things is virtually synonymous with modernity Often characterized as a break modernity is a story of gaps Around 1900 many independent strands of gap thought and experience interacted and interwove more intricately Atoms textiles theories women Jews collage poetry patchwork and music figure prominently in these strands The gap is a ubiquitous phenomenon that crosses the boundaries of neuroscience rabbinic thinking modern literary criticism art popular culture and the structure of matter This book explores many subjects but it is ultimately a work of art Sharing the Blue Crayon Mary Anne Buckley, 2023-10-10 Social and emotional learning is at the heart of good teaching but as standards and testing requirements consume classroom time and divert teachers focus these critical skills often get sidelined In Sharing the Blue Crayon Mary Anne Buckley shows teachers how to incorporate social and emotional learning into a busy day and then extend these skills to literacy lessons for young children Through simple activities such as read alouds sing alongs murals and performances students learn how to get along in a group empathize with others develop self control and give and receive feedback all while becoming confident readers and writers As Buckley shares Every day we ask young children to respectfully converse question debate and collaborate about literature science math problems history and more That s sophisticated stuff and requires sophisticated skills Social and emotional skills are essential to helping children communicate their knowledge and articulate their questions We must teach students how to build respectful caring classroom communities where students are supported and fully engaged in the learning and everyone can reach their potential In this fresh and original book Buckley captures the humor wonder honesty and worries of our youngest learners and helps teachers understand how to harness their creativity and guide their conversations toward richer expressions of knowledge Teachers of special populations will especially appreciate Buckley s successful strategies for reaching English language learners and children from high poverty homes who may not have strong foundations for academic discourse As Buckley reminds us By understanding one another orally and socially at first then using those community building exchanges to strengthen the skills of reading and writing we experience the authentic pride and sweet joys of learning understanding and connecting to one another Innovators David W. Galenson, 2025-01-21

Some innovators are luminous shooting stars think Pablo Picasso Albert Einstein Sylvia Plath Bob Dylan Steve Jobs who make bold leaps early and suddenly then lose their creativity Others are late bloomers Paul Cezanne Charles Darwin Virginia Woolf Alfred Hitchcock Warren Buffett who show little early promise but spend long periods doggedly pursuing distant goals and attain greatness in old age By analyzing the careers of scores of great innovators this book reveals systematic differences in the motivations and methods of these two types and their very different patterns of creativity over the life cycle The result is a new and deeper unified understanding of the sources of human creativity
