Bland, 2001 One of the most striking representations of Jesus in the scriptures is that of a shepherd Based on John 10 s statement that He is the Good Shepherd this series of eight lessons teaches youngsters of Jesus unfailing love and care even to the point of death on the cross Like all of her previous collections each children s message is accompanied by a two sided activity page one side that s a coloring page for younger children and the other with numerous puzzles and activities to reinforce the lesson s theme for older children Bland has a well earned reputation for biblical faithfulness creativity and practicality Busy pastors and teachers have found her ready to use materials just what they need for their children s time we know you ll love her latest release The Shepherd And His Sheep is insightful simple and creative But most important is the depth of spirituality that is presented which will engage the mind and heart of a child Although specifically designed with children in mind Bland s messages recover the significance of Jesus statement that unless we come to him as a child we will miss the kingdom of God This collection of sermons and activities will call the child in each one of us to be in the presence of the Good Shepherd Steven M Marsh Dean of Chapel and Spiritual Formation Assistant Professor of Religion and Philosophy Sterling College During nearly 50 years as a pastor s wife Julia Bland has taught church groups of all ages from children

Amy Lindeman Allen, 2023-08-29 Children are often touted as the future of the church but their role in the church today is less frequently considered In The Gifts They Bring New Testament scholar pastor and mother Amy Lindeman Allen challenges readers to reconsider the way we view children in the church focusing on our present life together as a diverse inclusive community of faith To do this Lindeman Allen looks to the past rereading familiar Gospel accounts with an eye to the experience of childhood in Jesus world highlighting both the gifts that children brought to Jesus ministry as well as those they received from him Through this lens she invites readers to reconsider the age and relationship of well known and lesser known Bible characters including the Bethlehem shepherds James and John the two disciples who followed Jesus alongside their mother and the young boy whose lunch Jesus used to feed the five thousand In the process Lindeman Allen reconsiders ministry with children today moving away from a transactional model of imparting wisdom to children to a dialogical model of learning and serving together with children Each chapter reads a different Gospel story in conversation with experiences of real children in the church today bringing into focus the varied gifts that children bring in a practice of inclusive ministry These gifts include participation proclamation advocacy listening sharing and partnership Readers will grow more attuned to recognize the gifts that we each bring children and adults as essential members working together as one community in the body of Christ and so to share in the gift of Christ together Michigan School Moderator , 1918 Journeys with Jesus
