Decolonizing Global Mental Health China Mills, 2014-04-11 Decolonizing Global Mental Health is a book that maps a strange irony The World Health Organization WHO and the Movement for Global Mental Health are calling to scale up access to psychological and psychiatric treatments globally particularly within the global South Simultaneously in the global North psychiatry and its often chemical treatments are coming under increased criticism from both those who take the medication and those in the position to prescribe it The book argues that it is imperative to explore what counts as evidence within Global Mental Health and seeks to de familiarize current Western conceptions of psychology and psychiatry using postcolonial theory It leads us to wonder whether we should call for equality in global access to psychiatry whether everyone should have the right to a psychotropic citizenship and whether mental health can or should be global As such it is ideal reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as researchers in the fields of critical psychology and psychiatry social and health psychology cultural studies public health and social work Journal of the American Medical Association ,1923 Includes proceedings of the association papers read at the annual sessions and lists of current medical literature Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports ,1995
