Speculative Biography Donna Lee Brien, Kiera Lindsey, 2021-09-30 While speculation has always been crucial to biography it has often been neglected denied or misunderstood This edited collection brings together a group of international biographers to discuss how and why each uses speculation in their work whether this is to conceptualise a project in its early stages work with scanty or deliberately deceptive sources or address issues associated with shy or stubborn subjects After defining the role of speculation in biography the volume offers a series of work in progress case studies that discuss the challenges biographers encounter and address in their work In addition to defining the speculative spectrum within the biographical endeavour the collection offers a lexicon of new terms to describe different types of biographical speculation and more deeply engage with the dynamic interplay between research subjectivity and that which Natalie Zemon Davis dubbed informed imagination By mapping the field of speculative biography the collection demonstrates that speculation is not only innate to biographical practice but also key to rendering the complex mystery of biographical subjects be they human animal or even metaphysical Think Like a Curator Donna R. Braden, 2025-04-01 Most history museums large and small indoor and outdoor have a staff member with the title of curator or at minimum have tasks that can be classified as curator s work But understanding what is involved in doing this work is more complicated than it seems This book will help you to think like a curator Written by an author who has spent 45 years doing this type of work at one of the largest history museums in the country this book guides the reader through curatorial methodology in today s world with topics that include reading objects shaping collections engaging in rigorous research the curatorial role in exhibitions and historic site interpretation the basics of curatorial writing and curators as leaders It gives special focus to applying DEAI lenses as well as aligning with institutional mission and goals incorporating audience perspectives and using conceptual and systems thinking Both succinct and substantial this book includes easy explanations step by step process guides practical tips real life examples activities and source lists
