History And Myth In Romanian Consciousness:

History and Myth in Romanian Consciousness Lucian Boia, 2001 Europe in the Classroom Simona Szakács, 2017-10-13 This book provides an unconventional account of post 1989 education reform in Romania By drawing on policy documentation interviews with key players qualitative data from everyday school contexts and extensive textbook analysis this groundbreaking study explores change within the Romanian education system as a process that institutionalises world culture through symbolic mediation of the concept Europe The book argues that the education system s structural and organisational evolution through time is decoupled from its self depiction by ultimately serving a nation building agenda It does so despite notable changes in the discourse reflecting increasingly transnational definitions of the mission of the school in the post 1989 era The book also suggests that the notions of nation and citizen institutionalised by the school are gradually being redefined as cosmopolitan matching post war patterns of post national affiliations on a worldwide level Creolizing

A Satellite Empire Vladimir Solonari, 2019-12-15 Satellite Empire is an in depth investigation of the political and social history of the area in southwestern Ukraine under Romanian occupation during World War II Transnistria was the only occupied Soviet territory administered by a power other than Nazi Germany a reward for Romanian participation in Operation Barbarossa Vladimir Solonari s invaluable contribution to World War II history focuses on three main aspects of Romanian rule of Transnistria with fascinating insights from recently opened archives Solonari examines the conquest and delimitation of the region the Romanian administration of the new territory and how locals responded to the occupation What did Romania want from the conquest The first section of the book analyzes Romanian policy aims and its participation in the invasion of the USSR Solonari then traces how Romanian administrators attempted in contradictory and inconsistent ways to make Transnistria Romanian and civilized while simultaneously using it as a dumping ground for 150 000 Jews and 20 000 Roma deported from a racially cleansed Romania The author shows that the imperatives of total war eventually prioritized economic exploitation of the region over any other aims the Romanians may have had In the final section he uncovers local responses in terms of collaboration and resistance in particular exploring relationships with the local Christian population which initially welcomed the occupiers as liberators from Soviet oppression but eventually became hostile to them Ever increasing hostility towards the occupying regime buoyed the numbers and efficacy of pro Soviet resistance groups

Fabricating Authenticity in Soviet Hungary Péter Apor, 2015-03-01 This book explores the memory of the First Hungarian Soviet Republic of 1919 which proved crucial for communist Hungarian political culture in the twentieth century Apor approaches the topic in an innovative way focusing on the understudied aspects of European memory cultures Offering great insights on how a dictatorship remembers and the concept of authenticity Apor s study integrates the broad range of processes through which history is sought to be rendered authentic The volume successfully reveals the crooked history of the retrospective revisions of the iconic First Republic between the years of its 30th and 40th anniversary 1949 and 1959

Bringing the Dark Past to Light John-Paul Himka, Joanna Beata Michlic, 2019-06-12 Despite the Holocaust s profound impact on the history of Eastern Europe the communist regimes successfully repressed public discourse about and memory of this tragedy Since the collapse of communism in 1989 however this has changed Not only has a wealth of archival sources become available but there have also been oral history projects and interviews recording the testimonies of eyewitnesses who experienced the Holocaust as children and young adults Recent political social and cultural developments have facilitated a more nuanced and complex understanding of the continuities and discontinuities in representations of the Holocaust. People are beginning to realize the significant role that memory of Holocaust plays in contemporary discussions of national identity in Eastern Europe. This volume of original essays explores the memory of the Holocaust and the Jewish past in postcommunist Eastern Europe. Devoting space to every postcommunist country, the essays in Bringing the Dark Past to Light explore how the memory of the dark pasts of Eastern European nations is being recollected and reworked. In addition, it examines how this memory shapes the collective identities and the social identity of ethnic and national minorities. Memory of the Holocaust has practical implications regarding the current development of national cultures and international relationships.

Ionel Bratianu Keith Hitchins, 2011-09-06 At the beginning of 1918 the British War Cabinet endorsed the view of the Prime Minister David Lloyd George that after the war Austria-Hungary should be in a position to exercise a powerful influence in south-east Europe. These reassuring professions were the essence of hypocrisy since the Allies had already given away at least on paper large chunks of Austro-Hungarian territory as bribes to potential allies. In 1916 Romania was promised the whole of Transylvania, the Banat, both components of historic Hungary and the Bukovina in return for her entry into the war. These promises persuaded the Romanian Prime Minister Ion Bratianu, 1864-1927, to intervene in the war on the side of the Allies in 1916. He led the Romanian delegation to the Paris Peace Conference where he insisted on those promises to be fulfilled. His often strained relations with the Big Four and the Supreme Council were further eroded when Romania invaded Hungary. Romania, however, in the end signed and adhered to the Treaty of Saint Germain-en-Laye with Austria, Neuilly-sur-Seine with Bulgaria, the Treaty of Paris 1920, the Treaty of Trianon with Hungary and the minorities treaty.

A Global History of Modern Historiography Georg G. Iggers, Q. Edward Wang, Supriya Mukherjee, 2016-09-01 The first book on historiography to adopt a global and comparative perspective on the topic. A Global History of Modern Historiography looks not just at developments in the West but also at the other great historiographical traditions in Asia, the Middle East and elsewhere around the world over the course of the past two and a half centuries. This second edition contains fully updated sections on Latin American and African historiography, discussion of the development of global history, environmental history and feminist and gender history in recent years and new coverage of Russian historical practices. Beginning in the mid-eighteenth century, the authors analyse historical currents in a changing political, social and cultural context, examining both the adaptation and modification of the Western influence on historiography and how societies outside Europe and America found their own ways in the face of modernization and globalization. Supported by online resources including a selection of excerpts from key historiographical texts, this book offers an up-to-date account of the status of historical writing in the global era and is essential reading for all students of modern historiography.

Prussia in the Historical Culture of the German Democratic Republic Marcus Colla, 2023-01-06 Using the case study of Prussia, Marcus Colla presents a multi-perspective approach to the way that a distinctive historical culture was constructed in the German

Democratic Republic evaluating the roles played by political figures historians and cultural elites but also purveyors of popular culture such as writers and musicians

Historicizing Race Marius Turda, Maria Sophia Quine, 2018-02-22 The idea of race may be outdated as many commentators and scholars working in a broad range of different fields in the sciences and humanities have argued over many years Nevertheless it remains one of the most persistent forms of human classification Theories of race primitivism the idea that there is a natural racial hierarchy and ranking order of inferior and superior races race biologism the belief that people can be classified by genetic features which are shared by members of racial groups and race essentialism the notion that races can be defined by scientifically identifiable and verifiable cultural and physical characteristics are deeply embedded in modern history culture and politics Historicizing Race offers a new understanding of this reality by exploring the interconnectedness of scientific cultural and political strands of racial thought in Europe and elsewhere It re conceptualises the idea of race by unearthing various historical traditions that continue to inform not only current debates about individual and collective identities but also national and international politics In a concise format accessible to students and scholars alike the authors draw out some of the reasons why race centred thinking has in recent years re emerged in such shocking and explicit form in current populist xenophobic and anti immigration movements

Complicated Complicity Martina Bitunjac, Julius H. Schoeps, 2021-06-21 Complicated Complicity is about the forms taken motives and spectrum of actions of European collaboration with the Nazis State authorities local military organizations and individual players in different countries and areas including France Scandinavia Lithuania Poland Ukraine Romania Hungary Slovakia Greece Italy Portugal and the countries of the former Yugoslavia are discussed in the context of the history of World War II the history of occupation and everyday life and as an essential influencing factor in the Holocaust New forms of right wing populism nationalism and growing intolerance of Jewish fellow citizens and minorities have made such historically sensitive studies considerably more difficult in many countries today In this time of increasing historical revisionism in Europe such elucidating discourse is particularly relevant

Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom Raluca Goleşteanu-Jacobs, 2023-12-01 This comparative attempt intended for postgraduates and scholars of Eastern Central Europe investigates the political economic and cultural landscape of Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom in the second half of the 19th century Often in historiography and in the public sphere alike the two cases under study have been separately regarded as contexts that provided atypical answers to modernity and parts of a region that has been regarded as atypical in itself Recently efforts have been made to integrate each of the cases in a post imperial paradigm identifying the complex interactions between their socio political modernisation and historical memory This book continues this trend by investigating for the first time the two cases together as parts of a space of alterity as labs of shifting ideologies and labels The public figures and the institutions depicted in the book are physically located in Central and in Eastern Europe but by sometimes competing experiences they are illustrative for several identities and historical realms local regional and continental Secondly the current work addresses dilemmas related to Nationalism and nation building for the sake of separating those discourses which reflected on civic nationalism from those which directed the public mind to the values of ethnic nationalism

Witchcraft in Romania Ioan Pop-Curşeu, Ştefana Pop-Curşeu, 2022-11-30 This book provides a history of witchcraft in the territories that compose contemporary Romania with a focus on the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries The first part presents aspects of earthly justice religious and secular analysing the codes of law trials and verdicts and underlining the differences between Transylvania on one hand and Moldavia and Wallachia on the other The second part is concerned with divine justice describing apocalyptic texts that talk about the pains of witches in hell but also the ensembles of religious painting where in vast compositions of the Last Judgment various punishments for the sin of witchcraft are imagined

Cinema, State Socialism and Society in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe, 1917-1989 Sanja Bahun, John Haynes, 2014-07-25 This book presents a comprehensive re examination of the cinemas of the Soviet Union and Central and Eastern Europe during the communist era It argues that since the end of communism in these countries film scholars are able to view these cinemas in a different way no longer bound by an outlook relying on binary Cold War terms With the opening of archives in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union much more is known about these states and societies at the same time the field has been reinvigorated by its opening up to more contemporary concepts themes and approaches in film studies and adjacent disciplines Taking stock of these developments this book presents a rich varied tapestry relating specific films to specific national and transnational circumstances rather than viewing them as a single monolithic Cold War Communist cinema
