Social Capital in Organizational Ecosystems Thomas, Brychan Celfyn, Murphy, Lyndon John, 2019-03-19 Social capital as a concept is a comparatively recent addition to the regional economic and innovation literature Facets of social capital are generally acknowledged to include trust collaboration cooperation bridging and bonding social network ties and reciprocity Nevertheless forms of social capital such as bonding and bridging social capital are less frequently explored in the literature Innovation and Social Capital in Organizational Ecosystems breaks down the concept of innovation into its main components which represent a spectrum of innovation activity from technology based innovation to hidden and social innovation in order to support executives concerned with innovation and social capital in different work communities and environments Highlighting a range of topics including regional development social innovation network capital and more this book is ideally designed for researchers professionals students policymakers and practitioners Routledge Handbook of Human Resource Management in Asia Fang Lee Cooke, Sunghoon Kim, 2017-09-11 Human Resource Management HRM is fundamentally shaped by institutional and cultural factors such as the different political environments and social philosophies of particular countries and regions By examining the various organizational aspects of business life and systems of people management in Asia the study of HRM across the continent can therefore give us a greater understanding of Asian societies as well as the contemporary world of work more generally This handbook provides an up to date and intellectually engaging overview of HRM in the Asian context Distinctive in its comprehensive coverage of traditional as well as emerging topics of HRM it analyzes important themes such as the regulatory framework for work and employment religiosity family business and gender Using a comparative approach it also effectively highlights the unique features of each country s attitudes towards HRM Covering a range of themes and case studies sections include Institutional and cultural contexts Labour regulation and industrial relations Thematic and functional HRM HRM in selected Asian countries such as China Japan Vietnam India and Singapore Written in a highly accessible style this book will be useful to students and scholars of Human Resource Management Asian Business Economics and Sociology Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Proceedings of IAC 2017 in Vienna group of authors, 2017-08-15 International Academic Conference on Teaching Learning and E learning and International Academic Conference on Management Economics and Marketing Vienna Austria 2017 IAC MEM 2017 IAC TLEI 2017 August 18-19 2017 Creating Wealth from Knowledge J. R. Bessant, Tim Venables, 2010-01-01 This book illustrates that although innovation has always mattered in economic development simply increasing expenditure in creating knowledge may not be the answer we need to look at the whole system through which such knowledge translates to value creation The contributors explore the implications of the changing twenty first century context of networked global and increasingly open innovation a world in which knowledge flows become as important as knowledge creation In so doing they address four key questions what is the context within which innovation

occurs in the UK How do new firms form on the basis of knowledge and its deployment How do established firms access and use knowledge to improve their current activities and generate new directions What technical and organizational infrastructures enable these activities Drawing out lessons for future research this book will be of great interest to academics concerned with science and innovation policy and its implementation Managers and policy makers involved in innovation and technology strategy and with developing responses to new challenges such as open innovation will also find much to interest them within this book

The Innovation Wave Bettina von Stamm, 2005-08-05 Focusing on the future challenges companies face in being continuously innovative this book is based on a combination of world class talks given at the Innovation Exchange IE conference in November 2001 Through interviews with various companies the book identifies the best and worst practices in innovation strategy Three main topics are discussed in detail trends challenges and paradoxes Utilizing practical and academic knowledge with a strong reliance on real world applicability the book will help readers build innovation performance into their companies

Micro-foundations for Innovation Policy E. Stam, 2025-10-01 In economics business and government policy innovation policy requires the creation of new approaches based on insight in what happens in innovation processes on the micro level of people firms and interaction between them In innovation policy it should also be recognized that innovation entails a whole range of activities beyond R D such as entrepreneurship design commercialization organization collaboration and the diffusion of knowledge and innovations This edited volume explores the roles of individuals and organizations involved in the creation and application of innovations Covering topics as diverse as the macro economic importance of innovation theories of knowledge and learning entrepreneurship education and research organizational innovation networks and regional innovation systems Micro Foundations for Innovation Policy provides critical insights into the development of innovation policy
