Children and the Ethics of Creativity Victoria Jane Hargraves, 2020-08-26 This book presents a critical reimagining of education and educational research in addressing practices of representation and their relation to epistemology subjectivity and ontology in the context of early childhood education Drawing on posthumanist perspectives and the immanent materialism of Deleuze Guattari to conceive of early childhood education childhood and indeed adult life in new ways it highlights the powerful role of language in subjectivity and ontology and introduces affectensity as a concept which can be put to work to undo habitual relations and meanings It proposes that ethical becomings require the engagement of an expansion and intensification of a body's affect or capacity and offers readers a provocation for enhancing creative capacity as an ethic This book is an important contribution to the discussions on methods for living and of ways of thinking commensurate with the orientation of a posthuman turn

E-books in Libraries Kate Price, Virginia Havergal, 2011 Despite the fact that e books have been in existence for decades in various guises and added to library collections for several years now there has been a noticeable lack of published manuals on the subject This is doubtless owing to the rapidly evolving nature of the market There is now a plethora of different types of digital object that may be termed e books and a bewildering number of business and access models to match Moreover the pace of change shows no sign of abating but there is an increasing amount of popular interest in e books and what is needed is practical information to assist library and information professionals managing collections of e books and doing their best to inform their users right now The book is divided into five parts The production and distribution of e books Planning and developing an e book collection Delivering e books to library readers Engaging readers with e books The future of e books Virginia Havergal BA Hons MSc MEd FIFL is a Learning Centres and e Resources Manager for Petroc a further education college in Devon Prior to this role she was an e Learning Advisor with JISC with a particular focus on Learning Resources Kate Price BA Hons MA MCLIP is Head of E Strategy and Resources at the University of Surrey Tutti pazzi per iPad Lucio
