FAST FACTS DEMOCRACY

- Democracy is a system of government where the citizens elect their representatives to make decisions for them.
- There are many types of democracy, but they all have one thing in common: the people have a say in how they are governed.
- In a direct democracy, the people vote on laws and policies themselves.
- In a representative democracy, the people elect representatives to make decisions for them.
- In a constitutional monarchy, the monarch is the head of state, but the real power is held by the elected government.
- In an absolute monarchy, the monarch has complete power over the country.
- In a dictatorship, one person has all the power.
- In a theocracy, the religious leaders make the laws.

WHAT'S A MONARCHY?

A monarchy is a form of government in which a single person, the monarch, rules the country. The monarch is usually a member of a royal family and is often a hereditary ruler. Monarchies can be absolute, where the monarch has complete power, or constitutional, where the monarch's power is limited by a constitution or laws.
