Grade 12 Economics November 2013 Memorandum

David M. Konisky

Grade 12 Economics November 2013 Memorandum:

Failed Promises David M. Konisky, 2015-03-27 A systematic evaluation of the implementation of the federal government's environmental justice policies. In the 1970s and 1980s the U.S. Congress passed a series of laws that were milestones in environmental protection including the Clean Air Act and the Clean Water Act. But by the 1990s it was clear that environmental benefits were not evenly distributed and that poor and minority communities bore disproportionate environmental burdens. The Clinton administration put these concerns on the environmental policy agenda most notably with a 1994 executive order that called on federal agencies to consider environmental justice issues whenever appropriate. This volume offers the first systematic empirically based evaluation of the effectiveness of the federal government's environmental justice policies. The contributors consider three overlapping aspects of environmental justice: distributive justice or the equitable distribution of environmental burdens and benefits; procedural justice or the fairness of the decision-making process itself; and corrective justice or the fairness of punishment and compensation. Focusing on the central role of the Environmental Protection Agency, they discuss such topics as facility permitting, rulemaking, participatory processes, bias in enforcement, and the role of the courts in redressing environmental injustices. Taken together, the contributions suggest that despite recent environmental justice initiatives from the Obama administration, the federal government has largely failed to deliver on its promises of environmental justice. Contributors: Dorothy M. Daley, Eileen Gauna, Elizabeth Gross, David M. Konisky, Douglas S. Noonan, Tony G. Reames, Christopher Reenock, Ronald J. Shadbegian, Paul Stretesky, Ann Wolverton. The Decline of America David D. Schein, 2018-02-13 The Decline of America offers a carefully documented analysis of the last seventeen U.S. presidents. These men, eight Democrats and nine Republicans, have shaped the last 100 years not only for America but for the world. Each president is profiled with unsparing scrutiny so we can see where it's all gone wrong. David Schein follows these critiques by proposing ways to improve America's outlook for the next 100 years before it's too late.

The Monopolists Mary Pilon,2015-02-17 The Monopolists reveals the unknown story of how Monopoly came into existence the reinvention of its history by Parker Brothers and multiple media outlets the lost female originator of the game and one man s lifelong obsession to tell the true story about the game s questionable origins Most think it was invented by an unemployed Pennsylvanian who sold his game to Parker Brothers during the Great Depression in 1935 and lived happily and richly ever after That story however is not exactly true Ralph Anspach a professor fighting to sell his Anti Monopoly board game decades later unearthed the real story which traces back to Abraham Lincoln the Quakers and a forgotten feminist named Lizzie Magie who invented her nearly identical Landlord s Game more than thirty years before Parker Brothers sold their version of Monopoly Her game underpinned by morals that were the exact opposite of what Monopoly represents today was embraced by a constellation of left wingers from the Progressive Era through the Great Depression including members of Franklin Roosevelt s famed Brain Trust A gripping social history of corporate greed that illuminates the cutthroat nature of American business over the last century The Monopolists reads like the best detective fiction told through Monopoly s real life winners and losers
