

Guided Reading Activity B-2: Electing the President

OBJECTIVES: Use the information on your worksheet to complete the diagrams.

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE SYSTEM

In 1788	In 1804	Today
Each state chose electors a equal to the number of senators and representatives. The Electoral College voted for president in their own states. The electors with the most votes became president and the next state the next highest number of votes became the president.	The 12th Amendment requires electors to cast separate ballots for president and vice president. It also requires electors to cast one vote for each elector.	Presidents are now elected directly by the people and vice presidents are elected by the people. The Electoral College is now made up of 538 electors. Each state has a certain number of electors and the state with the most electors is the president.

OBJECTIVES: Use the information on your worksheet to complete the diagrams.
