O'Connor,2023-12-30 Nestled on the banks of the Willow River just to the east of the Cherokee Mountains the idyllic little city of Harper Falls was quintessential small town America Nothing bad had ever happened there until 1961 that is It was in the wee hours of May 8 when firefighter Jack Troy responded with his ladder company to a major fire in a residence hall at the College of Saint Brigid where he proceeded to smash his way into a smoke filled third floor apartment in an attempt to save a young woman who appeared to be trapped Jack knew this high wire heroic act would put him in grave danger but a life hung in the balance This is what he had trained for This was his job What Jack could not know however was that the danger he faced in the choking smoke and intense heat at the college that day would pale in comparison to the peril he would soon face as he was drawn into a gripping tale of love romance and murder the likes of which had never been seen in the little city of Harper Falls Jack s brave rescue effort at the end of his aerial ladder that morning ultimately led him to a beautiful young woman who quickly became the love of his life Together they made a picture perfect couple and began to carry on a close and touching romance But it wasn t long before Jack started to suspect that not all was well and that someone was trying to kill his new love Was the fire really an accident or just the sinister beginning of a slowly escalating effort to eliminate her Jack had his doubts The police were deeply involved but sometimes distracted going
