Esmaeil Haddadian-Moghaddam, 2014-12-15 Literary Translation in Modern Iran A sociological study is the first comprehensive study of literary translation in modern Iran covering the period from the late 19th century up to the present day By drawing on Pierre Bourdieu's sociology of culture this work investigates the people behind the selection translation and production of novels from English into Persian The choice of novels such as Morier's The Adventures of Hajji Baba of Ispahan Austen's Pride and Prejudice and Vargas Llosa's The War of the End of the World provides insights into who decides upon titles for translation motivations of translators and publishers and the context in which such decisions are made The author suggests that literary translation in Iran is not a straightforward activity As part of the field of cultural production literary translation has remained a lively game not only to examine and observe but also often a challenging one to play By adopting hide and seek strategies and with attention to the dynamic of the field of publishing Iranian translators and publishers have continued to play the game against all odds The book is not only a contribution to the growing scholarship informed by sociological approaches to translation but an essential reading for scholars and students of Translation Studies Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies The Routledge Handbook of Audiovisual Translation Luis Pérez-González, 2018-10-10 The Routledge Handbook of Audiovisual Translation provides an accessible authoritative and comprehensive overview of the key modalities of audiovisual translation and the main theoretical frameworks research methods and themes that are driving research in this rapidly developing field Divided in four parts this reference work consists of 32 state of the art chapters from leading international scholars The first part focuses on established and emerging audiovisual translation modalities explores the changing contexts in which they have been and continue to be used and examines how cultural and technological changes are directing their future trajectories The second part delves into the interface between audiovisual translation and a range of theoretical models that have proved particularly productive in steering research in audiovisual translation studies The third part surveys a selection of methodological approaches supporting traditional and innovative ways of interrogating audiovisual translation data The final part addresses an array of themes pertaining to the place of audiovisual translation in society This Handbook gives audiovisual translation studies the platform it needs to raise its profile within the Humanities research landscape and is key reading for all those engaged in the study and research of Audiovisual Translation within Translation studies Introducing Translation Studies Jeremy Munday, 2016-02-05 Introducing Translation Studies remains the definitive guide to the theories and concepts that make up the field of translation studies Providing an accessible and up to date overview it has long been the essential textbook on courses worldwide This fourth edition has been fully revised and continues to provide a balanced and detailed guide to the theoretical landscape Each theory is applied to a wide range of languages including Bengali Chinese English French German Italian Punjabi Portuguese and Spanish A broad spectrum of texts is analysed including the Bible Buddhist sutras Beowulf the fiction of García Márquez and Proust European Union and UNESCO documents a range of contemporary films a travel brochure a children's cookery book and the translations of Harry Potter Each chapter comprises an introduction outlining the translation theory or theories illustrative texts with translations case studies a chapter summary and discussion points and exercises NEW FEATURES IN THIS FOURTH EDITION INCLUDE new material to keep up with developments in research and practice including the sociology of translation multilingual cities translation in the digital age and specialized audiovisual and machine translation revised discussion points and updated figures and tables new in chapter activities with links to online materials and articles to encourage independent research an extensive updated companion website with video introductions and journal articles to accompany each chapter online exercises an interactive timeline weblinks and powerpoint slides for teacher support This is a practical user friendly textbook ideal for students and researchers on courses in Translation and Translation Studies

Linking up with Video Heidi Salaets, Geert Brône, 2020-01-15 This volume is intended as an innovating reader for both interpreting practitioners as well as scholars engaging with the multifaceted question addressed in the title Why linking up with video The chapters in this volume deal with this question from different perspectives On the one hand the volume continues the ongoing discussion on the pros and cons of video based interaction for the interpreting profession exploring the implications and applications when interpreters and their clients link up through video technology On the other hand the chapters also explore the potential of video technology for research on interpreting hence raising the question in which way high quality video recordings of interpreters in the booth participants involved in interpreter mediated talk etc may be instrumental in gaining new insights In this sense the volume strongly ties in with the fast growing field of multimodal interaction studies which makes use of video recordings to study the relationship between verbal and nonverbal resources such as gestures postural orientation gaze and head movements in the construction of meaning in communication

Handbook of Terminology Łucja Biel, Hendrik J. Kockaert, 2023-12-15 As a core component of legal language used to draft enforce and practice law legal terms have fascinated lawyers linguists terminologists and other scholars for centuries Third in the series this Handbook offers a comprehensive compendium of the current state of knowledge on legal terminology It is the first attempt to bring together perspectives from the domains of Terminology Translation Studies Linguistics Law and Information Technology in a single place This interdisciplinary endeavour comprises systematic reviews case studies and research papers which overview key properties of legal terms and concepts terminological tools and resources training aspects as well as translation in national contexts and multilingual organizations The Handbook attests to the complex multifaceted nature of legal terminology and showcases its cultural communicative cognitive and social contexts in diverse legal systems It is a rich resource for scholars practitioners trainers and students presenting vibrant research and practice in this area

Handbook of Terminology Abied Alsulaiman, Ahmed Allaithy, Kara Warburton, 2019-01-29 The current volume represents a revival of Arabic translation and terminology studies These disciplines have been dominated by Western scholarship in recent decades but in truth their historical tradition as a whole owes a great debt to Arabic scholarship The first systematic translation activity ever organized was under the Abbasids in Baghdad in the 9th Century CE and Arabic domination continued for several centuries before the tide turned In this collection the importance of the ongoing translation and terminology movement in the Arab world is revealed through the works of some of the most distinguished scholars who investigate a wide range of relevant topics from the making of the first ever Arabic monolingual dictionary to modern day localization into Arabic Arabic terminology standardization as well as legal medical Sufi and Quranic terms issues with both cultural and economic ramifications for the Arab world are thoroughly examined completing the solid framework of this rich tradition that still has a lot to offer
