Murphy,2012-05-04 Short enough to be synoptic yet long enough to be usefully detailed A Short History of Writing Instruction is the ideal text for undergraduate courses and graduate seminars in rhetoric and composition. It preserves the legacy of writing instruction from antiquity to contemporary times with a unique focus on the material educational and institutional context of the Western rhetorical tradition. Its longitudinal approach enables students to track the recurrence over time of not only specific teaching methods but also major issues such as social purpose writing as power, the effect of technologies, the rise of vernaculars, and writing as a force for democratization. The collection is rich in scholarship and critical perspectives, which is made accessible through the robust list of pedagogical tools included, such as the Key Concepts listed at the beginning of each chapter and the Glossary of Key Terms and Bibliography for Further Study provided at the end of the text. Further additions include increased attention to orthography or the physical aspects of the writing process, new material on high school instruction, sections on writing in the electronic age, and increased coverage of women rhetoricians and writing instruction of women. A new chapter on writing instruction in Late Medieval Europe was also added to augment coverage of the Middle Ages, fill the gap in students' knowledge of the period, and present instructional methods that can be easily reproduced in the modern classroom. A Guide to Composition Pedagogies Gary Tate, Amy Rupiper-Taggart, Kurt Schick, Brooke Hessler, 2014-02. This is a bibliographic guide written for newcomers to the field. The book familiarizes writing instructors with the current topography of composition studies and directs them to the best books and articles for further exploration. Naval Training Bulletin, 1959. The Best American Sports Writing 2003 Glenn Stout, H. G. Bissinger, Buzz Bissinger, 2003. Bissinger gathers together stellar prose on a dizzying array of sporting endeavors: triathlon, tennis, wrestling, bookmaking, basketball, boxing, chess, golf. Any reader's favorite game can be found in these pages. But every piece here transcends its subject; every piece crystallizes the emotions all great competitions evoke: joy, fear, heartache, affection, surprise. In both players and fans, David Grann weighs the burden of superstardom with Barry Bonds; Susy Buchanan explores demolition derby, possibly the most Darwinian sport in America; Gary Smith examines the baseball that ignited a lawsuit; Josh Senses tees up with the ultimate Zen golfer, a Tibetan lama; S. L. Price looks back at Pancho Gonzalez, one of the greatest and likely the most irascible tennis players ever; Michael Agovino recalls life with a bookmaking father; Stephen J. Dubner hangs out with NFL draftees at their league-mandated rookie symposium, a mix of motivational seminar, boot camp, and Scared Straight. These pieces, and many more, delve beneath the stats and the hype to unveil the raw, compelling essence of sport. Since its inception in 1915, the Best American series has become the premier annual showcase for the country's finest short fiction and nonfiction. For each volume, a series editor reads pieces from hundreds of periodicals, then selects between fifty and a hundred outstanding works. That selection is pared down to the twenty or so very best pieces by a guest editor who is widely recognized as a leading writer in his or her field. This unique system has helped make the Best American series the most respected and most popular of its kind. This American sportswriting series is a venerable institution. Boston Globe Buzz Bissinger selects the very best writing on a vast variety of competitive endeavors, from baseball to weightlifting, skating to demolition derby. Herein today's
