Our old home, and English notebooks Nathaniel Hawthorne, 1891 Boats Against the Current Lewis

Perry, 2002-08 Boats Against the Current provides a fascinating account of how American culture emerged from the sheltered elitist world of the eighteenth century into the dynamic turbulent civilization that reached full bloom after the Civil War The antebellum years were times of flux and change years of a society rushing into the western wilds muscular and ambitious yet haunted by uncertainty about its future and its past Renowned scholar Lewis Perry begins his study with a fresh look at Andrew Jackson vividly recreating a time when Americans feeling their ties to the past disintegrating fostered a new fascination with history Then Perry introduces us to the observations of such articulate foreign travelers as Alexis de Tocqueville and Fredrika Bremer He deftly weaves together these writers perspectives to provide a fascinating look at our emergent nation Here too are the women of the cities and frontier the peddlers preachers and showmen along with such writers as Hawthorne Emerson Whittier and Parker Perry brings these personalities and writings together to show us how early nineteenth century America saw itself in both its promise and its fears Now available for the first time in paperback Boats Against the Current offers a brilliant portrait of a society in the midst of change expansion and reflection about its own future and past Written by one of our leading intellectual historians it makes a major contribution to our understanding of the emergence of modern American culture The English Notebooks Nathaniel Hawthorne, Pierpont Morgan Library, 1962

Victorian London Liza Picard, 2014-01-28 To Londoners the years 1840 to 1870 were years of dramatic change and achievement As suburbs expanded and roads multiplied London was ripped apart to build railway lines and stations and life saving sewers The Thames was contained by embankments and traffic congestion was eased by the first underground railway in the world A start was made on providing housing for the deserving poor There were significant advances in medicine and the Ragged Schools are perhaps the least known of Victorian achievements in those last decades before universal state education In 1851 the Great Exhibition managed to astonish almost everyone attracting exhibitors and visitors from all over the world But there was also appalling poverty and exploitation exposed by Henry Mayhew and others For the laboring classes pay was pitifully low the hours long and job security nonexistent Liza Picard shows us the physical reality of daily life in Victorian London She takes us into schools and prisons churches and cemeteries Many practical innovations of the time flushing lavatories underground railways umbrellas letter boxes driving on the left point the way forward But this was also at least until the 1850s a city of cholera outbreaks transportation to Australia public executions and the workhouse where children could be sold by their parents for as little as 12 and streetpeddlers sold sparrows for a penny tied by the leg for children to play with Cruelty and hypocrisy flourished alongside invention industry and philanthropy
