Losing My Religion A Call For Help:

Losing My Religion Jeffrey Lang, 2004 Crucial to the vitality of any religious community is its ability to attract and engage descendants and converts By this measure notwithstanding the proliferation of mosques and Islamic organizations the Muslim community in America is not doing at all well This rather sober assessment motivates Dr Lang to address in this book the alienation from the Mosque of the great majority of America's homegrown Muslims In Losing My Religion A Call For Help the author comes to terms with many of the queries put to him by Americans of Muslim parentage and converts to Islam since the publication of his book Even Angels Ask in 1997 Lang asserts that to effectively respond to the general malaise of American born Muslims the Islamic establishment in America needs to be willing to listen to the doubts and complaints of the disaffected This entails engaging in open discussions on issues with which many in the Muslim community will be uncomfortable but Lang avers that such open dialogue will be of more benefit to young American Muslims struggling with their faiths than the covert and uniformed discussions that often take place or no discussion at all In addition to examining questions of theodicy hadith authenticity and moot practices within the American Muslim community the author includes many testimonials and inquiries that make this book informative

Losing My Religion Ria Barna, 2008-03-31 We all own a very special key It is the key that unlocks all that we are and all that we could ever want and dream of wanting Access to this key is so simple yet we make it so hard This key is always there waiting for us to use it to unlock our treasure chest and to release the power within it We all want so badly to be the winner of the big lottery but little do we know we already are the winner We think winning the lottery will give us the power to do what we want with our lives If we only knew that all the power is already within us They say that in the last days the hearts of many men will fail because of fear Our hearts fail every time we make a decision based in fear instead of believing to trust what is in our hearts Our heart is each and everyones very own treasure chest that is open every time we choose to believe what is in it Now if the key to all our happiness is in our treasure chest which lies within our heart wouldnt it make sense that our number one priority in life would be to discover our heart and what lies within it Every time we make a decision aligned with our heart we tap into our power and release a potent and invisible energy into the world This energy in turn orchestrates the universe to reflect back into our lives that ultimately leads us to fulfill our purpose We must believe that all of lifes experiences situations and relationships are there to take us on a great journey A journey that creates opportunities for self discovery and that promotes self growth and awareness One experience of life is death However it is not death in the physical sense but in a spiritual sense It is dying to who we thought we were and dying to what we thought we believed and to how we defined ourselves A lot of what we thought really isnt even our own thoughts They are actually thoughts we adopted from others They are thoughts and beliefs imposed on us by others beginning right down to when we were babies In this process to self discovery we must cut off the junk we gathered in life that are not our own in order to become in alignment to who we are God is the very essence of life the life within us and the life outside us As we continue the path of self discovery happiness is sure to follow The compass that should aid us in our journey is called bliss Following our bliss is the key to what is in your heart and ultimately to be one with God The key to our fulfillment in life is not to create separation between who God is and who we are We are one with God We are cocreators with God and we have the power to create whatever we want

Understanding the Prophetic Hadith Dheya Saqer Al Jalahma, Yasser Ahmed Gomaa, 2023-04-21

This book examines two English translations of Mishkāt ul Maʿāb by Al Tabrīzī and reflects on some of the key issues relating to Hadith translation The highly instructional nature of the Prophetic Hadith means that the comprehensibility of any translation is of great importance to a non Arabic speaking Muslim and there is a need to analyze available translations to determine whether these texts can function properly in the target culture The volume considers the relevance of skopos theory the concept of loyalty and the strategies of the translators in question There are also chapters that focus on the translation of Islamic legal terms and metaphors related to women formulaic expressions and reported nonverbal behavior in Fazlul Karīm's 1938 and Robson's 1960 versions of the text

Dilemmas of Authenticity Zaid Adhami, 2025-05-07

The past two decades have witnessed pervasive anxieties in US Muslim communities around a perceived crisis of faith As Zaid Adhami argues in this richly textured ethnography these concerns are fundamentally about the pressures and dilemmas of authenticity what it really means to be a Muslim While discussions about authenticity in Islam typically focus on maintaining tradition and competing claims to true Islam Adhami focuses instead on the powerful idea of being true to one's own self and what it means to have genuine belief Drawing on extensive conversations with American Muslims and careful readings of broader communal discourse Adhami shows that this drive for personal authenticity plays out in complicated ways It can produce deep doubt while also serving as the grounds to affirm tradition It can converge with revivalist modes of piety but it can also prompt emphatic challenges to communal orthodoxies Through vivid storytelling and sensitive analysis Adhami illuminates why religious doubt is often a source of intense anxiety in today's world and how people maintain their faith despite such unsettling uncertainty

Interreligious Dialogue and Cultural Change Catherine Cornille, Stephanie Corigliano, 2012-08-17

The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes In this volume scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non Western contexts this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 22:4 Johannes Grundmann,Md. Mahmudul Hasan,2005-10-10 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS is an interdisciplinary journal that publishes a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world anthropology economics history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Submissions are subject to a blind peer review process Encyclopedia of Muslim-American History Edward E. Curtis,2010 A two volume encyclopedia set that examines the legacy impact and contributions of Muslim Americans to U S history Manitoba Muslims Ismael Ibrahim Mukhtar,2021-07-26 Manitoba Muslims A History of Resilience and Growth is both a look back at the history of Muslims in the province of Manitoba and a look forward into the future The Muslims of Manitoba have a presence that reaches back beyond a century They are a fast growing demographic and continue to make many positive contributions to their community and country The history of Manitoba Muslims is an integral part of the history of Manitoba and Canada with a better collective understanding of our history all Canadians can work together to create a more respectful tolerant and welcoming nation This book opens with a history of the community beginning in 1900 The second section examines some of the issues and challenges facing the Islamic community in Manitoba The author examines the challenges faced by specific segments of the community such as women youth and converts In addition address affiliations controversies social issues halal alternatives integration and Islamophobia This book will appeal to members of the public interested in learning about Islam and the Muslim community in Manitoba It will also serve as an informative resource for historians faith groups and governing bodies October 2021 Young Muslim Digest Syed Iqbal Zaheer,2021-10-02 Among the major publications of IQRA Publications is the popular Islamic monthly in English the Young Muslim Digest arguably among the foremost in this type of publishing in India This magazine is being brought out regularly by IQRA Publications since the past 36 years The magazine carries authentic Islamic material for the Western educated and or West influenced youth presented in a creative manner while yet highlighting the beliefs of the earliest predecessors and an understanding of the Qur an and Sunnah on the pattern of the great majority of Islamic scholars of the past and of those prominent down to the present age In view of the authentic nature of its contents the magazine has been awarded license for distribution in Saudi Arabia Besides the regular monthly production of the Young Muslim Digest IQRA Publications has quite a few other Islamic titles to its credit Each one of these books offer authentic material and cover topics that are not normally covered by other publishers It is perhaps for this reason that they are popular even outside the country Malaysia for instance imports many of IQRA s titles regularly Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Karen-Marie Yust,2006 Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality Perspectives from the World s Religious Traditions provides a forum for prominent religious scholars to examine the state of religious knowledge and theological reflection on spiritual development in childhood and adolescence Featuring essays from thinkers representing the world's major religious traditions the book introduces new voices challenges assumptions raises new questions and broadens the base of knowledge and investment in this important domain of life It specifically and intentionally focuses on theological and philosophical perspectives from within religious traditions creating space for the religious traditions to find their voices Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality is firmly grounded in the language and priorities of religious studies and helps stimulate explorations of whether and how religious communities are tapping their own wisdom and strengths in nurturing today's young people in a complex and changing world Nurturing Child and Adolescent Spirituality will set the stage for new waves of scholarship and dialogue within and across traditions disciplines and cultures that will enrich understanding and strengthen how the world's religious traditions and others understand and cultivate the spiritual lives of children and adolescents around the globe

Letters to My Elders in Islam Jerald

Dirks,2008 Losing My Religion William Lobdell,2009-03-06 Lobdell's spiritual journey fascinates not least on account of the irony of his trajectory from agnosticism to belief to atheism while covering religion Booklist starred review William Lobdell's journey of faith and doubt may be the most compelling spiritual memoir of our time Lobdell became a born again Christian in his late 20s when personal problems including a failed marriage drove him to his knees in prayer As a newly minted evangelical Lobdell a veteran journalist noticed that religion wasn't covered well in the mainstream media and he prayed for the Lord to put him on the religion beat at a major newspaper In 1998 his prayers were answered when the Los Angeles Times asked him to write about faith Yet what happened over the next eight years was a roller coaster of inspiration confusion doubt and soul searching as his reporting and experiences slowly chipped away at his faith While reporting on hundreds of stories he witnessed a disturbing gap between the tenets of various religions and the behaviors of the faithful and their leaders He investigated religious institutions that acted less ethically than corrupt Wall St firms He found few differences between the morals of Christians and atheists As this evidence piled up he started to fear that God didn't exist He explored every doubt every question until finally his faith collapsed After the paper agreed to reassign him he wrote a personal essay in the summer of 2007 that became an international sensation for its honest exploration of doubt Losing My Religion is a book about life's deepest questions that speaks to everyone It is must reading for people of faith and nonbelievers alike The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,2005

Becoming a Mother, While Losing My Own Claudia Parker,2012-03-23 Becoming a Mother While Losing My Own is an amazing testimony of Gods grace Claudia Parker takes us through her life with riveting accounts of pain rejection and scandal After she accepts Christ her capricious relationship with her mother is reconciled Their bond is strengthened when she finds out shes expecting her first child Unfortunately she learns that her mother may not live long enough for them to meet Becoming a Mother While Losing My Own is a story of resilience Its a story of faith and the human spirit triumphing over adversity You will witness how Gods mercy gave a woman a chance to create a family life vastly different than the one she grew up in If you want to be inspired this is the book to read

A Christian from Egypt: Life Story of a Neurosurgeon Pursuing the Dreams for Quintuple Certifications Rhamsis F. Ghaly,2015-01-23 A CHRISTIAN FROM EGYPT LIFE STORY RAMSIS F GHALY MD FACS This is my life story as a Coptic Christian born and raised in Egypt in an environment of limited opportunities and scarce resources especially for Christian minorities Seeking the promise opportunity I came to the United States nearly 30 years ago as a young man As I flew westward on the plane it did not occur to me that I would become a prominent neurosurgeon with a practice in one of the great cities of America Nor did I anticipate that I would ever be in a position to fight for save lives and fight for patients lives protecting them from the specter of financial greed permeates the health care industry This book chronicles my journey in America from my early struggles to get past closed doors to my current practice serving the mission set before me with uncompromising zeal and devotion Eventually I became a prominent American neurosurgeon among the only 4000 active nationwide and the only one nationally and internationally to achieve five board certifications in five

acknowledged medical disciplines My story takes the reader through my first hand experiences through the eight health care systems and Chicagos history of neuroscience over the last three decades providing an in depth view of the medical practices in the surrounding suburban communities My book also includes the lessons that I have learned my personal views and patient testimonials What I have faced and seen since my plane landed in this country in 1984 is almost inexpressible It is my sincere wish that others may find hope and inspiration from my story as well as an understanding of the challenges that the healthcare industry faces today along with my own passion for excellence in neuroscience as I confront them I owe my success to God to my cherished parents my teachers my mentors and most importantly my beloved patients Leaving Faith Behind Fiyaz Mughal, Aliyah Saleem, 2020-04-28 Leaving Faith Behind gives voice to women and men who were born into Muslim families and communities but who have made the decision to leave Islam or to dissent against some of the most significant aspects of Islamic doctrine Aliyah who realized as a young woman that she did not have to live by rigid rules and concepts that suffocated her true self Hassan who became a practicing Muslim in his teens but for whom doubts led him to leave the faith in his fifties Jimmy banished from his home and family when he was discovered to be gay Marwa who keeps secret from her community the fact that she can no longer practice a religion that she believes degrades and denies basic rights to women Aisha for whom the journey from belief to disbelief was a gradual process involving personal challenge and confrontations with friends and family As increasing numbers of people in Western society choose to turn away from organized religion this book allows the stories of some of them to be heard the reasons for their decisions to leave the challenges of leaving and the effects on their lives and relationships It also captures portraits of life and culture within Muslim communities in our fast changing world and how they are reacting and responding to migration secularization more inclusive attitudes to gender and sexuality and other trends of modern society
