Christopher P. Brown

Gr 12 Sba Learner Guide 2015:

Resisting the Kinder-Race Christopher P. Brown, 2021 This book explores how the current process of schooling that frames public education through economic rather than democratic terms is fundamentally flawed why it must change and how all members and participants within the early childhood and elementary school communities must be a part of the reform process The work is based on the author's recent studies of stakeholders in the changed kindergarten as well as earlier studies examining the impact of reforms on classrooms pre and in service teachers students families administrators teacher educators and other education stakeholders By examining these issues empirically practically and theoretically the author illuminates the complexity of what is currently occurring in kindergarten and other early childhood classrooms across the U S Then Brown skillfully puts forward ideas for change that are practical and achievable in developing systems of schooling that can educate foster and sustain a democratic society

English Language Proficiency Assessments for Young Learners Mikyung Kim Wolf, Yuko Goto Butler, 2017-05-25 English Language Proficiency Assessments for Young Learners provides both theoretical and empirical information about assessing the English language proficiency of young learners Using large scale standardized English language proficiency assessments developed for international or U S contexts as concrete examples this volume illustrates rigorous processes of developing and validating assessments with considerations of young learners unique characteristics In this volume young learners are defined as school age children from approximately 5 to 13 years old learning English as a foreign language EFL or a second language ESL This volume also discusses innovative ways to assess young learners English language abilities based on empirical studies with each chapter offering stimulating ideas for future research and development work to improve English language assessment practices with young learners English Language Proficiency Assessments for Young Learners is a useful resource for students test developers educators and researchers in the area of language testing and assessment

Social Studies Education in East Asian Contexts Kerry J. Kennedy, 2020-07-28 The book explores the state of social studies education within selected East Asian societies and provides some insights into distinctive classroom practices In an increasingly volatile and unpredictable world the education of young people who both understand the contexts in which they are growing up and see the need for engaging with them is a top priority This task falls to social studies education which carries the responsibility for inducting young people into their social world and helping them to see the role they can play within it This is particularly important in East Asia where strong economic growth long held cultural values and diverse political systems create an environment that challenges young people on multiple fronts This book with its team of regional authors shows how different societies in the region are dealing with these challenges and what can be expected from future citizens The book will appeal to policy makers researchers and teachers interested in the current state of social studies education in East Asian societies
