The Making of the Tabernacle and the Construction of Priestly Hegemony Nathan MacDonald, 2023-09-21 How did the Jerusalem high priests go from being cultic servants in the sixth century BCE to assuming political supremacy at some point during the third or second century The Making of the Tabernacle and the Construction of Priestly Hegemony examines how the conditions were created for the priesthood s rise to power by examining the most important ideological texts for the high priests the description of the wilderness tabernacle and the instructions for the ordination ritual found in the Biblical books of Exodus and Leviticus Although neglected by many modern readers who often find them technical and repetitive the tabernacle accounts excited considerable interest amongst early scribes and readers as is evidenced by the survival of them in no fewer than four versions Untangling this intricate compositional history helps shed light on how these chapters in the Pentateuch shaped and were shaped by the perception of the priesthood s powers and competencies during the Persian and early Hellenistic periods The hierarchy that is developed is more nuanced and multifaceted than previously appreciated with Israelite artisans community leaders Levites and women incorporated into a complex vision of society The ordination ritual was also transformed by scribal elites during the Persian period appearing in no fewer than five variant forms as the role of the high priesthood and its relationship to other groups was negotiated Using a broad plural methodological approach that incorporates insights from sociology ritual studies textual and literary criticism early interpretation manuscript studies and philology Nathan MacDonald's study shines new light on the historical development theology and ideology of priestly texts in the Pentateuch

How to Become a Big Man in Africa Wale Adebani, 2024-08-06 Can subalterns transform themselves into members of the elite and what does it take to do so And how do those efforts reveal the nature of ethnic politics in postcolonial Africa How to Become a Big Man in Africa Subalternity Elites and Ethnic Politics in Contemporary Nigeria examines these questions by revealing how through ethno regional conflict violence and cultural activities an artisan Gani Adams transformed himself into the holder of the most prestigious chieftaincy title among the Yoruba Addressing persistent gaps in anthropological studies of the subaltern and of big men in politics through in depth biography and rich social history Wale Adebani follows Adams and other major figures in Nigeria's Oodua People's Congress (OPC) over two decades of ethnographic study and visual representations. Challenging existing models of African political mobility by leveraging his initial lack of formal education into a position of power, Adams moved from a radical lumpen and area boy to a big man who continues to struggle and reflect over the significance of his role as a cultural subject. Blurring the lines between tradition and modernity, Adams and his group have used Yoruba rituals to simultaneously claim authenticity and champion new movements for democracy and self-determination. How to Become a Big Man in Africa encourages us to understand the full complexity of Adams's political trajectory and how it reflects the structural and personal realities of becoming a Big Man in the contemporary postcolony.

Political Epistemology Pietro Daniel Omodeo, 2019-10-14 This book is an investigation of the ideological dimensions of the disciplinary discourses on science in line with the scholarly tradition of historical epistemology. It offers a programmatic treatment of the political epistemological problematic along three entangled lines of inquiry: socio-historical, epistemological, and historiographical. The book aims for a meta-level integration of the existing scholarship on the social and cultural history of science in order to consider the ways in which struggles for hegemony have constantly informed scientific discourses. This problematic is of primary relevance for scholars in Science Studies, philosophers, historians, and sociologists of science, but would also be relevant for anybody interested in scientific culture and political theory.

Education and Power in Contemporary Southeast Asia Azmil Tayeb, Rosalie Metro, Will Brehm, 2023-07-18 This book focuses on education and power in Southeast Asia and analyzes the ways in which education has been instrumentalized by state, non-state, and private actors across this diverse region. The book looks at how countries in Southeast Asia respond to the endogenous and exogenous influences in shaping their education systems. Chapters observe and study the interplay between education and power in Southeast Asia, which offers varying political, social, cultural, religious, and economic diversities. The political systems in Southeast Asia range from near-consolidated democracy in Indonesia to illiberal democracy in Singapore and Thailand to the communist regime in Laos to absolute monarchy in Brunei. Structured in three parts: i) centralization and decentralization, ii) privatization and marketization, and iii) equity and justice, these themes are discussed in single-country and/or multi-country studies in the Southeast Asian region. Bringing together scholars from and focused on Southeast Asia, this book fills a gap in the literature on education in Southeast Asia.

Liberal Democracy in Crisis Alen Toplišek, 2018-09-12 This book rethinks resistance against neoliberalism in the context of the crisis of Western liberal democracy and the rise of new radical left parties in Europe. Drawing upon a wide range of methodological approaches in contemporary political and social theory, it explores how the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis represents the opening of possibilities for resistance and examines the structural hurdles facing radical politics in effectively challenging neoliberalism. The author challenges the dominant conceptions of democratic politics by critically interrogating the role of liberalism in the depoliticisation of governing and the neoliberal restructuring of the democratic role of the state. The trajectory of new radical left parties in Slovenia, Greece, and Spain is used to demonstrate the need to overcome the binary divide between institutional politics and resistance in radical political theory and practice

Contested Histories and Politics of People P. Prayer Elmo Raj, 2021-07-12 Contested Histories and Politics of People is an analytical interface to the plurivocal trajectories and influential approaches fashioned by Subaltern Studies It highlights the diverse methods and the dynamics of resistance that augmented specific ways of countering hegemonic domination Power manipulated and subjugated subaltern classes both from within through elite nationalists and outside through colonialism Bringing together the splintered movements that revolutionarily resist hegemonic state power Subaltern Studies unearths subsumed narratives and subjugated knowledges Accordingly it contributes towards a critique of neo colonial politics and powers that influence and alter history This book suggests that what emerged as a historical critical method to challenge dominant historiography hegemony and power has contributed towards the formation of a cultural history

Achieving Global Open Access Stephen Pinfield, 2024-07-10 Achieving Global Open Access explores some of the key conditions that are necessary to deliver global Open Access OA that is effective and equitable Often assumed to be a self evident good OA has been subject to growing criticism for perpetuating global inequities and epistemic injustices It has been seen as imposing exploitative business and publishing models and as exacerbating exclusionary research evaluation cultures and practices Pinfield engages with these issues recognising that the global OA debate is now not just about publishing business models and academic reward structures but also about what constitutes valid and valuable knowledge how we know and who gets to say The book argues that for OA to deliver its potential it first needs to be associated with epistemic openness a wider and more inclusive understanding of what constitutes valid and valuable knowledge It also needs to be accompanied by participatory openness enabling contributions to knowledge from more diverse communities Interacting with relevant theory and current practice the book discusses the challenges in implementing these different forms of openness the relationships between them and their limits Achieving Global Open Access is essential reading for academics and students engaged in the study of

Library and Information Science Open Access and Publishing It will also be valuable and interesting to library and publishing professionals around the world

Biopolitical Disaster Jennifer L. Lawrence, Sarah Marie Wiebe, 2017-07-14 Biopolitical Disaster employs a grounded analysis of the production and lived experience of biopolitical life in order to illustrate how disaster production and response are intimately interconnected The book is organized into four parts each revealing how socio environmental consequences of instrumentalist environmentalities produce disastrous settings and political experiences that are evident in our contemporary world Beginning with Commodifying crisis the volume focuses on the inherent production of disaster that is bound to the crisis tendency of capitalism The second part Governmentalities of disaster addresses material and discursive questions of governance the role of the state as well as questions of democracy This part explores the linkage between problematic environmental rationalities and policies Third the volume considers how and where the de valuation of life itself takes shape within the theme of Affected bodies and investigates the corporeal impacts of disastrous biopolitics The final part Environmental aesthetics and resistance fuses concepts from affect theory feminist studies post positivism and contemporary political theory to identify sites and practices of political resistance to biopower Biopolitical Disaster will be of great interest to postgraduates researchers and academic scholars working in Political ecology Geopolitics Feminist critique Intersectionality Environmental politics Science and technology studies Disaster studies Political theory Indigenous studies Aesthetics and Resistance

Traces of Violence and Freedom of Thought Lene Auestad, Amal Treacher Kabesh, 2017-09-13 This book examines how people cannot escape being tainted whether actively engaged or not by violence in its countless manifestations The essays encompass a wide range of theoretical resources methodological approaches and geo political areas They describe how images and fragments of traumatic and violent scenarios are transported from one generation s unconscious to that of another leading to cycles of repetition and retaliation restricting the freedom to imagine alternatives and inhabit alternative positions The authors all work within a psychosocial framework by unsettling the boundaries between psyche social Four themes are addressed violence of speech violence and domination repetition and violence and the possibility of reparation or renewal Due to its theoretical engagements and the case studies provided this interdisciplinary collection will be of value to postgraduate and undergraduate students of psychology philosophy politics and history

Mesa Agust Nieto Galan Pietro Daniel Omodeo Matteo Realdi Jaume Sastre Juan Arne Schirrmacher Ana Sim es Carlos Tabernero Holgado and Carlos Ziller Camenietzki The Scottish Economy and Nationalism James Foley, 2023-08-18 Scotland's economic capacity to prosper independently of Britain has become a key political issue dominating the independence referendum of 2014 and continuing to influence British politics since But as this book shows the Scottish economy is not merely a statistical object it is also a political sociological and cultural idea which has been imagined and constructed The book explores the history of how Scotland has been framed in statistical and policy terms which are laden with conflicts over meaning ranging from class struggles and struggles against external control to the ongoing debate over national independence Using Scotland as a case study for examining the political meaning of the economy the book also considers the origins of efforts to measure the Scottish economy in the British nationalist terms of regional policy It then considers the influence in turn of North Sea oil globalisation Europeanisation class dealignment and neoliberal enterprise ideology in changing the meanings attached to the Scottish economy These form necessary conditions for the debate on national independence where the nature and the future of the Scottish economy remain the central controversy By examining the economic ideas of a self proclaimed cosmopolitan nationalist movement the study will offer deeper insights into how nationalists are adapting to the crisis of globalisation This book marks a significant contribution to the literature on Scottish independence as well as economic sociology nationalism critical geography and political economy more broadly The Elgar Companion to Antonio Gramsci William K. Carroll, 2024-01-18 Affirming Antonio Gramsci's continuing influence this adroitly cultivated Companion offers a comprehensive overview of Gramsci's contributions to the interdisciplinary fields of critical social science social and political thought economics and emancipatory politics Within the tradition of historical materialism it explores the continuing impact of Gramscian perspectives in the present day Women Writing Race, Nation, and History Sonita Sarker, 2022-04-07 This book presents how Nation and Narrative are bound together through the figure of the N native as it appears in the non fictional writings of Cornelia Sorabji Grazia Deledda Zitkala-Sa Virginia Woolf Victoria Ocampo and Gwendolyn Bennett It addresses two questions How did women writers in the early twentieth century tackle the entangled roots of political and cultural citizenship from which crises of belonging arise How do their narrative negotiations of those crises inform modernist practice and modernity then and now The N native moves between born in and first in in the context of the modern nation state In the dominant discourses of post imperial as well as decolonizing nations Native is relegated to Time static or fetishized through nostalgia and romance History is envisioned as active and contoured associated with motion and progress which the native inhabits and for whom citizenship is a political as well as a temporal attribute The six authors' identities as Native settler indigenous immigrant or native citizen are formed from their gendered racialized and classed locations in their respective nations Each author negotiates the intertwined strands of Time and History by mobilizing the N native to reclaim citizenship cultural political belonging This study reveals how their lineage connections to

land experiences in learning education and their labor generate their narratives The juxtaposition of the six writers keeps in focus the asymmetries in their responses to their times and illustrates how relevant women s feminist production were and are in today s versions of the same urgent debates about heightened nativisms and nationalisms UK Localism in Transition and the Politics of Community Heather Watkins, 2021-04-21 This book explores the politics of localism drawing on the work of groups in three communities in post industrial Nottinghamshire Third Way politics gave a high priority to local participation seen as a way of rebuilding social networks and shifting welfare provision from the state onto civil society However under increasingly difficult conditions of austerity significant contradictions emerge between the aims of entrenching new markets for service provision and reviving communities and democratic participation Exploring in depth community organisers understandings of political economy and its local effects and the governance practices which set the frameworks for fiercely independent community groups the book outlines the forms of politics which emerge This includes a challenge to the dominant thinking of the neoliberal consensus but also frustration and a sense of political communal loss which has left these communities alienated from both national politics and the often unattainable benefits of global mobility an alienation which makes the Brexit vote of 2016 explicable as the disruptive outcome of a slow burning political crisis of long duration
