

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and missiles? (Why or why not?)	They would certainly produce jobs, but they also would be used to attack U.S. military facilities on the soil.	They might develop better in light of the technological gains that the U.S. already had. But still, Russia's economy was poor, and they were worried about the threat of American nuclear war.
3. Would anyone challenge U.S. power?	Not really.	They would be unable to match U.S. technological and other advances.
4. Would the U.S. achieve other goals, such as ending Communism, etc.?	Yes. The governments could be persuaded to end the communist system.	Yes. American jobs and technology would not be in competition with Russia.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these (other) requirements. Would it still bring about the technological gains that the United States wanted? What problems do you think the Soviet Union would face that might lead to this?
