Teaching Information Literacy Skills to Social Sciences Students and Practitioners Douglas Cook, Natasha Cooper, 2006 Teaching Information Literacy to Social Sciences Students Practitioners is a second discipline-based casebook from ACRL. This volume is based on the ACRL Information Literacy Competency Standards and presents cases on learning situations and how they can be analyzed and addressed. Also included are descriptions of instruction sessions for each case, notes, and teaching resources. Each case explicitly reflects one or more of the ACRL Information Literacy Standards. This practical collection of cases and applications brings a new set of resources to librarians doing instruction in the social sciences. Contributors cover such topics as data literacy, visual literacy, and developmental research skills training. Information on teaching undergraduate, graduate, and international students and how to incorporate information literacy into various social science curricula are also presented.

The Teaching Library Scott Walter, 2014-04-10 How do you make the case that your library is a valuable instruction center? The Teaching Library helps librarians assess data on information literacy instruction programs so that they can better support the teaching role of the academic library in campus settings. This practical professional resource features case studies from across the United States and Canada in both public and private institutions that offer a variety of evaluation methods. Here are the latest, easy-to-adopt ways of measuring your library's direct contribution to student learning on campus and off.

Teaching Information Literacy Reframed Joanna M. Burkhardt, 2016-06-02 The six threshold concepts outlined in the Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education are not simply a revision of ACRL's previous Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education. They are instead an altogether new way of looking at information literacy. In this important new book, bestselling author and expert instructional librarian Burkhardt decodes the Framework, putting its conceptual approach into straightforward language while offering more than 50 classroom-ready Framework-based exercises. Guiding instructors towards helping students cross each threshold, this book discusses the history of the development of the Framework document and briefly deconstructs the six threshold concepts. Thoroughly addresses each threshold concept, scaffolding from the beginner level to the intermediate level. Includes exercises that can be used in the one-shot timeframe as well as others designed for longer class sessions and semester-long courses. Offers best practices in creating learning outcomes assessments.
