Infrastructure 2014 Shaping The Competitive City Infrastructure Reports:

Infrastructure 2014 Colin Galloway, Rachel MacCleery, Sara Hammerschmidt, 2014 In a global marketplace how do real estate developers and investors who could put their money nearly anywhere think about infrastructure And how do city leaders use infrastructure to position their cities relative to other cities regionally nationally and internationally for real estate investment and economic development This report based on a survey conducted in January 2014 of real estate and public leaders from around the world explores the role that infrastructure plays in shaping the future of cities and metropolitan areas

US Infrastructure Aman Khan, Klaus Becker, 2019-09-17 This book presents an in depth look at US infrastructure and its challenges in the 21st century While infrastructure has received considerable attention in recent years much of the discussion has concentrated on physical economic or noneconomic conditions The Trump administration has heightened interest in the topic promising infrastructure spending during his tenure yet little demonstrable progress has been made This book brings together a multi disciplinary perspective structural technological economic financial political planning and policy that has been largely absent in discussions on the subject to provide a clearer and broader understanding of the challenges facing US infrastructure The book is divided into three parts Part I looks at the challenges from a structural technological and sustainability perspective Part II from an economic productivity and finance perspective and Part III from an institutional security and political perspective Written primarily for policy makers managers and administrators in public and private organizations as well as individuals and academics with an interest in the future of US infrastructure this book provides an in depth analysis of the US infrastructure problem its causes and consequences and suggests timely specific measures that may be taken at the state local and federal levels to improve and better secure our roads transit public buildings economy and technology

Gearing Up for Competitiveness Vivian Castro-Wooldridge, Tatiana Gallego Lizon, Asian Development Bank, 2016 While there has been a considerable focus on Asia s megacities little research has been undertaken on the competitiveness of smaller and medium sized cities where much of the growth is taking place These cities often support the larger ones with their industrial zones logistics infrastructure and affordable housing India has over 50 cities with a population of 1 million or more that do not qualify as megacities This publication asserts that in order for smaller and medium sized cities to sustain growth and develop there needs to be greater emphasis on the quality of planning and institutions as well as financing for infrastructure

Infrastructure Delivery Planning Janice Morphet, 2016-04-20 This important text book is the first to be written about infrastructure planning in Britain Written by an experienced author the book reviews the rapid rise in the use of infrastructure delivery planning at national and neighbourhood level The key components of infrastructure delivery are set out and analysed including the development of government policy planning regulation funding environmental processes and legal challenges Situating this within international European and domestic economic territorial and social policy the author draws on a variety of practical through case studies in this volume Handbook on Transport and Urban Planning in the Developed World Michiel C.J. Bliemer, Corinne Mulley, Claudine J. Moutou, 2016-02-26 This Handbook provides comprehensive coverage of all of the major factors that underpin our understanding of urban and transport planning in the developed world Combining urban and transport planning in one volume the chapters present the state of the art as well as new research and directions for the future The contributions from leading international academics at the forefront of their fields consider transport and urban planning from a number of different perspectives including historical policy and strategy dimensions appraisal and financing of options planning and design of urban areas and the management of transport and urban systems Examples and practical guides from the developed world are included along with a detailed discussion of the emerging issues The Handbook provides an essential reference to all of the key points on the topic as well as signalling areas of concern and future research paths Academics researchers students policymakers and practitioners will find it a constant source of information and guidance Infrastructure Finance in Europe Youssef Cassis, Giuseppe De Luca, Massimo Florio, 2016 The social returns of investment in water roads and railways are apparent in the long run but this distant horizon poses problems to governments and investors This volume explores the different historical paths to solving the problem of infrastructure finance in Europe from the fall of the Roman Empire to the end of the 20th century Re|shaping cultural policies: advancing creativity for development UNESCO, 2017-12-11 This Report demonstrates that innovative cultural policies implemented at regional and local levels have a positive impact on the whole of cultural governance It highlights the strategic frameworks best adapted to the digital environment the emergence of exchange platforms and the dynamism of artistic incubators in the global South It also points to the persistent inequalities and underrepresentation of women in the culture sector trade barriers on cultural goods and services from the global South and the vulnerability of artists at risk By providing yet unpublished statistics and data in these areas this Report is essential for developing and implementing public policies that are adapted to the evolving needs of the culture sector Foreword Smart Cities and Infrastructure United Nations. Economic and Social Council, 2016 Situated Practices of Strategic Planning Louis Albrechts, Alessandro Balducci, Jean Hillier, 2016-07-22 All over the world societies are facing a number of major problems New developments challenges and opportunities cause these issues and yet cases tell us that traditional spatial planning responses and tools are often insufficient to tackle these problems and challenges Situated Practices of Strategic Planning draws together examples from across the globe from France to Australia from Nigeria to the United States as it observes international comparisons of the strategic planning process Many approaches and policies used today fail to capture the dynamics of urban regional transformation and are more concerned with maintaining an existing social order than challenging and transforming it Stewarded by a team of highly regarded and experienced researchers this book gives a synthetic view of the process of change and frames future directions of development It is unique for its combination of analysis of international case studies and reflection on critical nodes and features in strategic planning This volume will be of interest to students who study regional planning academics professional planners and policy makers The Political Economy of Megaprojects in Asia Hyun Bang Shin,Dong-Wan Gimm,2025-02-18 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of how the developmental goals of Asian states are reflected in large scale projects and how various actors both realize and challenge these goals The rise of Asian economies has spurred the proliferation of megaprojects through large scale resource mobilization necessitating varying degrees of state intervention Despite neoliberal pressures these projects remain linked to national developmental aspirations driven by domestic transnational or combined pro growth interests and serve multiple political purposes The book advances the argument that megaprojects embody the dynamics of multiscale strategic relations that determine the process and outcome of urbanization These projects create iconic landmarks new towns central business districts and infrastructure showcasing intertwined political and economic interests By examining contemporary megaprojects in China South Korea Taiwan India Malaysia and Turkey the contributing authors reveal the complexity of urbanizing forces and their multiscale nature in shaping the built environment and shed light on the intricate interplay of state strategies economic needs and sociopolitical forces that influence urban landscapes This interdisciplinary work provides a nuanced understanding of the political economy underpinning Asian urbanization and contributes to ongoing debates on urban development state society relations and the production of space in the context of globalization Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license The Report: Myanmar 2014 Oxford Business Group,2014-03-03 The Golden Land officially known as the Republic of the Union of Myanmar and formerly as Burma has undergone dramatic reforms in recent years under the administration of President U Thein Sein The rapid transition from a military junta to an open economy has surprised the global community and will see Myanmar assume the ASEAN chair for the first time in 2014 Known as the last frontier market Myanmar is rich in natural resources and has an established extractive industries sector with one of the world's oldest continuously producing oil fields The country also enjoys significant mineral resources which remain greatly under explored by international mining firms something the government is proactively trying to change The easing of economic sanctions has accelerated the nation's economic growth but Myanmar still faces political challenges including ongoing ethnic conflict and religious tensions However with greater access to international markets and a growing number of business opportunities investors are cautiously optimistic about the country's future Latin American Economic Outlook 2014 Logistics and Competitiveness for Development OECD,CAF Development Bank of Latin America,Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean,2013-10-18 This edition of the Latin American Economic Outlook finds stable growth but uncertainty with regards to the commodity boom The special theme is logistics and competitiveness Water Reuse Policies for Potable Use Cecilia Tortajada,Choon Nam Ong,2018-10-11 As water demand has increased globally and resources have become more limited because of physical scarcity over exploitation and pollution it has been necessary to develop more options for water supplies. These options include the production at large scale of high quality reused water from municipal sources for potable uses. Their economic, social and environmental benefits have been many as they have addressed supply scarcity, efficient resource use and environmental and public health considerations. This book includes discussions on potable water reuse, history, emerging contaminants and public health, public private partnerships in the water reuse sector, regulatory frameworks for reused water in the United States and Europe, experiences in Australia, China in general and Beijing in particular, Singapore and Windhoek, narratives and public acceptance and perceptions of alternative water sources. The main constraints on implementation of water reuse projects in different parts of the world seem to have been lack of full public support due to perceived health hazards and environmental impacts. A main handicap has been that governments and water utilities have been slow to understand public concerns and perceptions. After several backlashes, public information, communication and awareness campaigns, broader participation and educational programmes have become integral parts of development policy and decision making frameworks.

Handbook of Research on Economic, Financial, and Industrial Impacts on Infrastructure Development Das, Ramesh Chandra, 2017-04-17. The infrastructure of a country has significant effects on both the lives of its citizens and its place in international markets. As such, it is imperative to develop policies to promote the quality of a nation's infrastructure. The Handbook of Research on Economic, Financial, and Industrial Impacts on Infrastructure Development is a pivotal reference source for the latest scholarly research on various initiatives and policies developed to enhance the current infrastructure of modern nations. Including the role of economics, finance and multiple industry perspectives, this book covers a range of pertinent topics such as R & D initiatives, foreign direct investment and trade liberalization, and this publication is an ideal reference source for researchers, academics, practitioners and students interested in recent trends in infrastructure development.

The World Won't Wait Roland Paris, Taylor Owen, 2016-01-01. In The World Won't Wait, some of Canada's brightest thinkers present essays on both classic foreign policy issues such as international security, human rights and global institutions and emerging issues like internet governance, climate change and sustainable development.

Beyond the Networked City Olivier Coutard, Jonathan Rutherford, 2015-12-14. Cities around the world are undergoing profound changes. In this global era, we live in a world of rising knowledge economies, digital technologies and awareness of environmental issues. The so-called modern infrastructural ideal of spatially and socially ubiquitous, centrally governed infrastructures providing exclusive homogeneous services over extensive areas has been the standard of reference for the provision of basic essential services such as water and energy supply. This book argues that after decades of undisputed domination, this ideal is being increasingly questioned and that the network ideology that supports it may be waning. In order to begin exploring the highly diverse, fluid and unstable landscapes emerging beyond the networked city, this book identifies dynamics through which a break with previous configurations has been operated and new, brittle zones of socio-technical controversy through which urban infrastructure and its wider meaning are being negotiated and fought over It uncovers across a diverse set of urban contexts new ways in which processes of urbanization and infrastructure production are being combined with crucial sociopolitical implications through shifting political economies of infrastructure which rework resource distribution and value creation through new infrastructural spaces and territorialities which rebundle socio technical systems for particular interests and claims and through changing offsets between individual and collective appropriation experience and mobilization of infrastructure With contributions from leading authorities in the field and drawing on theoretical advances and original empirical material this book is a major contribution to an ongoing infrastructural turn in urban studies and will be of interest to all those concerned by the diverse forms and contested outcomes of contemporary urban change across North and South
