behind even the most ordinary of wishes Lost and Found Aušra Paulauskienė, 2007 Ausra Paulauskiene's book Lost and Found: The Discovery of Lithuania in American Fiction targets American as well as European scholars in the fields of literature, ethnic studies and immigration. The author discovers obscure texts on Lithuania and alerts Western and Eastern academia to their significance as well as the reasons for their neglect. For the first time Abraham Cahan's autobiography The Education of Abraham Cahan and Ezra Brudno's autobiographical novel The Fugitive receive an extensive coverage while Goldie Stone's My Caravan of Years and Margaret Seebach's That Man Donaleitis sic receive their first scholarly consideration ever. The author argues that misrepresentations, misattributions and exclusions of Lithuanian legacy in the U.S. were produced by major political events of the twentieth century.

No Sharks in the Med Brian Lumley, 2022-01-08 Prior to the first American publication of Brian Lumley's ground-breaking, dead-waking best-selling Necroscope in 1988, the first novel in a long-lived, much-loved series, this British author had for twenty years been earning an envious reputation writing short stories, novellas and a series of novels set against H.P. Lovecraft's cosmic Cthulhu Mythos backdrop. In addition, and for a further twenty years, Lumley's non-Mythos Fantasy, SF and Horror stories have been appearing on a regular basis in some of the world's most famous publications, for example The Magazine of Fantasy Science Fiction and Weird Tales, along with anthologies such as Karl Edward Wagner's Year's Best Horror Stories, Charles L. Grant's Final Shadows and Kirby McCauley's Frights, among others. With his multiple award-winning literary career now spanning over four decades, Lumley continues to write his superior fictions, examples of which from each of those decades can be found in this current collection, where Weird Tales itself is represented by no less than five stories. Stories included in this collection: Fruiting Bodies, The Sun the Sea and the Silent Scream, The Picnickers, The Viaduct, The Luststone, The Whisperer, No Sharks in the Med, The Pit, Yakker, The Place of Waiting, The Man who Killed Kew Gardens, My Thing, Friday, The Disapproval of Jeremy Cleave.

Lost and Found in Translation Martha J. Cutter, 2006-05-18 Starting with Salman Rushdie's assertion that even though something is always lost in translation, something can always be gained, Martha Cutter examines the trope of translation in twenty English language novels and autobiographies by contemporary ethnic American writers. She argues that these works advocate a politics of language diversity, a literary and social agenda that validates the multiplicity of ethnic cultures and tongues in the United States. Cutter studies works by Asian American, Native American, African American and Mexican American authors. She argues that translation between cultures, languages and dialects creates a new language that in its diversity constitutes the true heritage of the United States. Through the metaphor of translation, Cutter demonstrates writers such as Maxine Hong Kingston, Sherman Alexie, Toni Morrison and Richard Rodriguez establish a place within American society for the many languages spoken by multiethnic and multicultural individuals. Cutter concludes with an analysis of contemporary debates over language policy, such as English-only legislation, the recognition of Ebonics and the growing acceptance of bilingualism. The focus on translation by so many multiethnic writers, she contends, offers hope in our postmodern culture for a new condition in which creatively fused languages renovate the communications of the dominant society and create new kinds of identity for multicultural individuals

Stars In My Pocket and Other Stories Julie Khristie, 2022-12-01 This heartwarming book that speaks about hope and healing comes in a collection of short stories that deal with love and loss death and deliverance We journey through life carrying with us the stories that we do not readily share to others And so we live endure and patiently go through the humdrum routine of this world But it is in the mundane things that change often happens for deliverance always comes to hearts who hold on to hope Sometimes deliverance comes through mere acceptance Sometimes it comes through a person a place a circumstance or sometimes it comes solely through the welcoming of hope And often it comes garbed not in an extravagant declaration but in a simple and quiet realization Begin again dream again live again These are the stars we carry in our pockets Athenaeum
