Love Objects Emotion Design And Material Culture:

Love Objects Anna Moran, Sorcha O'Brien, 2014-10-23 Love Objects is the first anthology on the concept of love to interrogate across a range of contexts its design and other material manifestations Love Objects Anna Moran, 2014

Feeling Things Stephanie Downes, Sally Holloway, Sarah Randles, 2018 This interdisciplinary essay collection investigates the various interactions of people feelings and things throughout premodern Europe It focuses on the period before mass production when limited literacy often prioritised material methods of communication The subject of materiality has been of increasing significance in recent historical inquiry alongside growing emphasis on the relationships between objects emotions and affect in archaeological and sociological research The historical intersections between materiality and emotions however have remained under theorised particularly with respect to artefacts that have continuing resonance over extended periods of time or across cultural and geographical space Feeling Things addresses the need to develop an appropriate cross disciplinary theoretical framework for the analysis of objects and emotions in European history with special attention to the need to track the shifting emotional valencies of objects from the past to the present and from one place and cultural context to another The collection draws together an international group of historians art historians curators and literary scholars working on a variety of cultural literary visual and material sources Objects considered include books letters prosthetics religious relics shoes stone and textiles Many of these have been preserved in international galleries museums and archives while others have remained in their original locations even as their contexts have changed over time The chapters consider the ways in which emotions such as despair fear grief hope love and wonder become inscribed in and ascribed to these items producing emotional objects of significance and agency Such objects can be harnessed to create affirm or express individual relationships as for example in religious devotion and practice or in the construction of cultural communal and national identities The Feeling Heart in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Katie Barclay, Bronwyn Reddan, 2019-12-02

The heart is an iconic symbol in the medieval and early modern European world In addition to being a physical organ it is a key conceptual device related to emotions cognition the self and identity and the body The heart is read as a metaphor for human desire and will and situated in opposition to or alongside reason and cognition In medieval and early modern Europe the feeling heart the heart as the site of emotion and emotional practices informed a broad range of art literature music heraldry medical texts and devotional and ritual practices This multidisciplinary collection brings together art historians literary scholars historians theologians and musicologists to highlight the range of meanings attached to the symbol of the heart the relationship between physical and metaphorical representations of the heart and the uses of the heart in the production of identities and communities in medieval and early modern Europe The Corporeality of Clothing in Medieval Literature Sarah Brazil, 2018-12-17 Every known society wears some form of clothing It is central to how we experience our bodies and how we understand the sociocultural dimensions of our embodiment It is also central to how we understand works of literature In this innovative study Brazil demonstrates how medieval writers use clothing to direct readers and spectators awareness to forms of embodiment Offering insights into how poetic works plays and devotional treatises target readers kinesic intelligence their ability to understand movements and gestures Brazil demonstrates the theological implications of clothing often evinced by how garments limit or facilitate the movements and postures of bodies in narratives By bringing recent studies in the field of embodied cognition to bear on narrated and dramatized interactions between dress and body this book offers new methodological tools to the study of clothing

The Top Books of the Year Love Objects Emotion Design And Material Culture The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Love Objects Emotion Design And Material Culture : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
