Literatures of Medieval and Early Modern Times in Europe and Beyond Francesco Stella, Lucie Doležalová, Danuta Shanzer, 2024-07-15 The textual heritage of Medieval Latin is one of the greatest reservoirs of human culture Repertories list more than 16 000 authors from about 20 modern countries Until now there has been no introduction to this world in its full geographical extension Forty contributors fill this gap by adopting a new perspective making available to specialists but also to the interested public new materials and insights The project presents an overview of Medieval and post medieval Latin Literatures as a global phenomenon including both Europe and extra European regions It serves as an introduction to medieval Latin's complex and multi-layered culture whose attraction has been underestimated until now. Traditional overviews mostly flatten specificities yet in many countries medieval Latin literature is still studied with reference to the local history. Thus the first section presents 20 regional surveys including chapters on authors and works of Latin Literature in Eastern Central and Northern Europe, Africa, the Middle East, Asia and the Americas. Subsequent chapters highlight shared patterns of circulation, adaptation and exchange and underline the appeal of medieval intermediality as evidenced in manuscripts, maps, scientific treatises and iconotexts and its performativity in narrations, theatre, sermons and music. The last section deals with literary interfaces that is motifs or characters that exemplify the double-sided or the long-term transformations of medieval Latin mythologemes in vernacular culture both early modern and modern such as the legends about King Arthur, Faust and Hamlet.

Modern Foreign Languages 5-11 Jane Jones, Simon Coffey, 2016-11-29. The need to introduce pupils to learning languages at an early stage has been widely acknowledged with MFL now a core part of the primary curriculum. Fully updated to support busy schools and teachers in planning teaching and delivering the new primary MFL entitlement for all primary pupils, this user-friendly guide covers significant pedagogical issues and is a key point of reference for all MFL work in the primary classroom. Now fully updated to include substantive writing about planning and introducing the new assessment scale, this book contains comprehensive coverage of resources and planning, valuable new cross-curricular links, ready-to-use activities that are anchored in research advice on assessment, SEN and the use of technology, a development of the broader issues of leadership, learning strategies and continuing professional development. Modern Foreign Languages 5-11 will help practitioners to teach MFL as a dynamic stand-alone subject while retaining a cross-curricular focus. It builds upon core principles of cultural learning, differentiation, language awareness and transferable skills by providing practical strategies that can be easily implemented in your setting. Offering comprehensive guidance on the pedagogy that underpins language teaching and covering everything you'll need to teach effectively, this book delivers a range of practical ideas and examples of best practice to help integrate effective language learning, teaching and assessment into the curriculum. Written to support the needs of trainees, practising teachers and school leaders as they develop their foreign language provision, this guide is key reading for those seeking to enhance their professional practice in primary MFL pedagogy.

Fifty Ways to Teach Speaking Janine Sepulveda, 2016-05-17. Teaching English as a second or foreign language is full of challenges. How do you hold students' interest? How do you ensure that they get enough practice to really learn? The Fifty Ways to Teach series gives you a variety of drills, games, techniques, methods and ideas to help your students master English. Most of the ideas can be used for both beginning and advanced classes. Many require little to no preparation or special materials. The ideas can be used with any textbook or without a textbook at all. These short practical guides aim to make your teaching life easier and your students' lives more rewarding and successful. This book addresses the teaching of speaking including fluency, pronunciation, self-expression, discussion skills and presentation skills
