

Love Maps Questionnaire

*Adapted from John Gottman,
The Seven Principles for Making Marriage
Work*

By giving honest answers to the following questions, you will get a sense of the quality of your current love maps. For the most accurate reading of how your marriage is doing on this first principle, both of you should complete the following.

Read each statement and circle T for "true" or F for "false."

1. I can name my partner's best friends. T F
2. I can tell you what stresses my partner is currently facing. T F
3. I know the names of some of the people who have been irritating my partner lately. T F
4. I can tell you some of my partner's life dreams. T F
5. I am very familiar with my partner's religious beliefs and ideas. T F
6. I can tell you about my partner's basic philosophy of life. T F
7. I can list the relatives my partner likes the least. T F
8. I know my partner's favourite music. T F
9. I can list my partner's three favourite movies. T F
10. My spouse is familiar with my current stresses. T F
11. I know the three most special times in my partner's life. T F
12. I can tell you the most stressful thing that happened to my partner as a child. T F
13. I can list my partner's major aspirations and hopes in life. T F
14. I know my partner's major current worries. T F
15. My spouse knows who my friends are. T F
16. I know what my partner would want to do if he or she suddenly came into a lot of money. T F
17. I can tell you in detail my first impressions of my partner. T F
18. Periodically I ask my partner about his or her world right now. T F
19. I feel that my partner knows me pretty well. T F
20. My spouse is familiar with my hopes and aspirations. T F

Scoring: Give yourself one point for each "true" answer.

10 or above: This is an area of strength for your marriage. You have a fairly detailed map of your spouse's everyday life, hopes, fears, and dreams. You know what makes your spouse "tick."

Below 10: Your marriage could stand some improvement in this area. Perhaps you never had the time or the tools to really get to know each other. Or perhaps your love maps have become outdated as your lives have changed over the years. In either case, by taking the time to learn more about your spouse now, you'll find your relationship becomes stronger.

Gottman Love Maps Questionnaire:

Dating and Mating in a Techno-Driven World Rachel Hoffman, 2018-01-25 Authored by a sex therapist who regularly works with clients wanting to improve their relationships this book explains how technology can create conflict or additional anxiety and discloses techniques to help individuals gain confidence or strengthen their personal relationships The statistics are telling 85 percent of all adults use the Internet 88 percent use email 91 percent own cell phones 56 percent own smartphones 73 percent send and receive text messages and 67 percent use social networking sites The advent of personal communication devices and ubiquitous connectivity has dramatically shifted the way we communicate and as a result the way we date and pursue relationships has changed The share of 18 to 24 year olds who use online dating has roughly tripled from 10 percent in 2013 to 27 percent today Modern dating techniques and technology enabled interpersonal communication have resulted in very distinct emotional side effects Dating and Mating in a Techno Driven World explores dating in our 21st century world with a unique approach providing understandable information for anyone who is dating or seeking a long term relationship while also serving as a clinical guide for therapists who want to learn how to treat individuals and especially couples presenting with some sort of issue related to technology Instead of simply offering an analysis of the trends that are occurring author Rachel Hoffman addresses the interpersonal problems and conflicts that result from digital or remote communication and courting and explains how to treat them The topics addressed include utilizing dating apps the effects of social media on relationships and how technology can be distracting in relationships Each chapter of the book supplies a case study or vignette an analysis of the situation research findings related to the topic and clinical information that identifies the implications for therapists working with individuals or couples with a similar experience Becoming a Marriage and Family Therapist Eugene Mead, 2013-01-29 Becoming a Marriage and Family Therapist is a practical how to guide designed to help trainee therapists successfully bridge the gap between classroom and consulting room Readers will learn how to apply empirically based methods to the core tasks of therapy in order to improve competency establish effective supervision and deliver successful client outcomes A practical guide to improving competency across the core tasks of therapy based on over 40 years of observation and teaching by an internationally acclaimed author Presents treatment protocols that show how to apply therapy task guidelines to a range of empirically supported marriage and family treatments Provides extended coverage on assessing and beginning treatment with crisis areas such as suicidal ideation and family violence with children elders and spouses Suggests how supervisors can support trainees in dealing with crisis and other challenging areas to build competence and successful delivery The Family Systems Test (FAST) Thomas M. Gehring, Marianne Debry, Peter K. Smith, 2013-02-01 The Family System Test FAST developed by Thomas M Gehring is an important new tool for investigating family relations Based on the structural systemic theory of families it is a figural technique for representing emotional bonds cohesion and hierarchical structures in the family or similar social systems In this unique volume the editors draw on current theory and research in family or similar social systems together with a variety of empirical studies that have used the FAST to provide a comprehensive overview and assessment of the test and its use in various clinical research contexts The book is divided into four sections each focusing on a different aspect of the FAST Part 1 describes the concepts and psychometric properties of the FAST within the context of theoretically and empirically relevant aspects of the field of family psychology as a whole Special emphasis is given to systematic structural approaches to assessing individual and family functioning Part II focuses on the use of the FAST in developmental research For example the the FAST has been used to show how family constructs are influenced by age type of family and situation Part III deals with cross cultural issues and compares the interpersonal constructs of Japanese and Chinese families to Western families Finally Part IV addresses the applications of the FAST in clinical setting in diagnosis of biopsychosocial problems and planning and evaluation of clinical interventions The result is a book that helps to bridge the gap between theory practice and research It will be essential reading for users of the FAST and all clinicians and researchers who work in family relations and development

Summary of Julie Schwartz Gottman & John M. Gottman's 10 Principles for Doing Effective Couples Therapy (Norton Series on Interpersonal Neurobiology) Everest Media, 2022-04-26T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 The history of the psychotherapy field is one of scientific study In the 1950s and 1960s many brilliant thinkers including Fritz Perls R D Laing B F Skinner and Albert Ellis broke free of Freudian constraints and created new therapies that focused on the here and now instead of the there and then 2 The cornerstones of family therapy were the ideas of reciprocity and venting which were based on the theory that healthy marriages are those where one partner responds to the other's good behavior with his or her own good behavior in turn But research has shown that airing resentments doesn't reduce anger it increases it 3 The idea that emotion is the enemy that mucks up the marital work of problem solving is a myth In fact emotions are central to problem solving Without access to our emotions our rational processes are handicapped and we become little better than a conglomeration of arbitrary and random behaviors 4 John had a colleague Robert Levenson who was also studying relationships They teamed up to study couples and found that it was extremely difficult to observe reliable patterns of behavior in just one person But when they studied interactions in pairs they found extremely reliable patterns Race and Social Change Max Klau, 2017-02-02 A powerful study illuminates our nation's collective civic fault lines Recent events have turned the spotlight on the issue of race in modern America and the current cultural climate calls out for more research education dialogue and understanding Race and Social Change A Quest A Study A Call to Action focuses on a provocative social science experiment with the potential to address these needs Through an analysis grounded in the perspectives of developmental psychology adaptive leadership and complex systems theory the inquiry at the heart of this book illuminates dynamics of race and social change in surprising and important ways Author Max

Klau explains how his own quest for insight into these matters led to the empirical study at the heart of this book and he presents the results of years of research that integrate findings at the individual group and whole system levels of analysis It is an effort to explore one of the most controversial and deeply divisive subjects in American civic life using the tools of social science and empiricism Readers will Review a long tradition of classic provocative social science experiments and learn how the study presented here extends that tradition into new and unexplored territory Engage with findings from years of research that reveal insights into dynamics of race and social change unfolding simultaneously at the individual group and whole systems levels Encounter a call to action with implications for our own personal journeys and for national policy at this critical moment in American civic life At a moment when our nation is once again bitterly divided around matters at the heart of American civic life Race and Social Change A Quest A Study A Call to Action seeks to push our collective journey forward with insights that promise to promote insight understanding and healing The Better Human Blueprint Pete

The Science of Couples and Family Therapy John M. Gottman,Julie Schwartz Gottman,2018-01-02 John and Julie Gottman world renowned for bringing an evidence base to couples therapy report here the results of a second empirical revolution in understanding couples and families This change is not based on their guesswork but on state of the art science This book finally completes the old general systems theory of the 1960s which metaphorically described processes but did not actually research them A new general systems theory and therapy is presented here one which will have profound implications for powerful clinical work with both couples and families This new theory is based on 45 years of careful basic scientific research with thousands of couples and families including synchronized observational interview physiological and questionnaire data The Gottmans have studied some families for as long as 20 consecutive years Their work has led to their highly replicated ability to precisely predict the future of relationships relationship happiness and whether couples will divorce or not with as much as 94% accuracy Their empirical work has also led them to develop and test a theory of specifically what makes relationships work Each construct in this theory is precise and measurable and it is all written about and described here This book presents an original new way of understanding relationships and families Both theoretical and highly practical and it will help clinicians become more effective in their everyday work
