Governing Europe's Spaces European Union Re Imagined European Policy Research Unit Series Mup:

Governing Europe's spaces Caitriona Carter, Martin Lawn, 2015-07-20 What do we imagine when we imagine Europe and the European Union To what extent is our understanding of the EU of its development its policies and its working processes shaped by unacknowledged assumptions about what Europe really is The book constructs a case for re imagining Europe not as an entity in Brussels or a series of fixed relations but as a simultaneously real and imagined space of action which exists to the extent that Europeans and others act in and on it This Europe is constantly being made in particular spaces through specific actor struggles whose interconnections are often ill defined We ask how do those concerned with building Europe with extending and elaborating the EU think of where they are and what they are doing The book captures Europeans in the process of making Europe of performing interpreting modelling referencing consulting measuring and de politicising Europe

European Policy Research Unit series Victoria University (Manchester) European Policy Research Unit, 1995 New Modes of Governance in Europe A. Héritier, M. Rhodes, 2010-12-15 Based on the research of the EU 6th framework funded research consortium on New Modes of Governance in the European Union this volume explores the roots execution and applications of new forms of governance and evaluates their success Regroup and Reform Steven Blockmans, Sophia

Russack, 2017 CEPS is an independent policy research institute based in Brussels Its mission is to produce sound analytical research leading to constructive solutions to the challenges facing Europe today This report is based on discussions in the CEPS Task Force on EU Reform New Europe Donald McNeill, 2014-05-12 New Europe Imagined Spaces traces the radical transformation of European places and spaces over the last two decades Instead of the familiar schoolbook map of a Europe of nation states the book unpacks the differing imaginations of European identity in recent years Taking as its central problem the fluid nature of cultural and political identity it moves firmly away from and calls into question the perspective of the nation state as the primary source of imagined identity for Europeans The book contributes to key debates such as the emerging Europe of the Regions and the return of the city state examines the rebranding of the nation state and explores the impact of Europeanisation on existing place identity Emphasising mobility and movement the chapters explore borderlands and travel and also include a detailed discussion of the everyday life of Europeans Throughout iconic images of contemporary Europe are invoked Eurodisney the Reichstag Barcelona's Ramblas and the Bilbao Guggenheim and the way in which mundane artefacts and practices such as football walking cars food passports and the Euro help construct identity is considered New Europe Imagined Spaces adopts a multidisciplinary approach to studying Europe providing students with an exploration of contemporary European space and place identity Europe in the World Luiza Bialasiewicz, 2011 This edited volume provides an innovative contribution to the debate on contemporary European geopolitics by tracing some of the new political geographies and geographical imaginations emergent within and made possible by the EU's actions in the international arena It draws on case studies that range from the Arctic to East Africa The question of EU border management is a particularly important concern of several contributions highlighting some of the ways in which the Union's border work is actively re-making the European space

Governing Europe Jack Hayward, Anand Menon, 2003-03-20 Governing Europe is intended to be the leading advanced survey of politics in Western Europe. It examines in detail all aspects of political life in Western Europe from public protest to core executives, social policy to Europe's place in the world. It brings together a world class team of leading scholars from the United Kingdom, continental Europe and North America. The contributions provide not only a sophisticated introduction to the various issues covered but also a detailed discussion of the major theoretical and empirical debates and developments in the field. The book therefore provides both a comprehensive overview and a series of original contributions to scholarly debate. The focus is on European core executives, public administration, parties and organised interests, democracy and popular participation, public policy and the changing European state. It will be essential reading to scholars and students alike. The volume is intended as a tribute to the late Vincent Wright of Nuffield College Oxford University.

BOOK JACKET

Adjusting to Europe Yves Meny, Pierre Muller, Jean-Louis Quermonne, 2002-09-11 First published in 2002, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company.

Organizing European Space Christer Jonsson, Sven Tagil, Gunnar Tornqvist, 2000-05-31 This book combines perspectives from political science, history and geography to provide a comprehensive introduction to Europe or European space as we understand it today. Central to the book is the phenomenon of the sovereign state and the question of alternative ways of organizing Europe politically and economically. The book explores four different ways of organizing space: state, union, region and network. By tracing the origins of the sovereign state in Europe, the book first reviews the resilience and adaptability of the sovereign state historically and then looks at the implications of the contradictory processes of integration and fragmentation or globalization and regionalization present today. A key concept developed throughout the book is that of networks, especially with respect to the European Union and the relationship between regions, networks and cities, a relationship long traditional to Europe's political organization. The authors review critically popular notions of a Europe of regions or the end of the sovereign state and instead serve to combine their different disciplinary conceptual tools and perspectives to provide new insights into the future organization of European space. Organizing European Space will be essential reading for all students of contemporary Europe seeking a deeper understanding of the modern state and the complexity of changing notions of identity, political organization and territoriality inherent in Europe in the past, present and future.

The Transformation of Governance in the European Union Beate Kohler-Koch, Rainer Eising, 1999 The book presents a theoretically informed typology of modes of governance which is tested in a careful selection of comparative country and policy studies At the core is the question whether the European Union is destined to a network type of governance and whether and how this type of governance will be translated into the member states The individual chapters subject the governing patterns at European and national level to empirical scrutiny Drawing on recent research findings in different issue areas including monetary union social affairs environment genetic engineering and market liberalisation in transport banking energy professional services the contributions highlight the impact of the European activities on policy making process in the member states

Frameworks of the European Union's Policy Process Nikolaos Zahariadis, 2017-07-05 The book advances the state of the European Union's policy theory by taking stock of seven promising frameworks of the policy process systematically comparing their limitations and strengths and offering a strategy to develop robust research agendas Frameworks may constitute competing policy explanations depending on assumptions they make about EU institutional and issue complexity The frameworks include detailed analyses of multi level governance advocacy coalitions punctuated equilibrium multiple streams policy learning normative power Europe and constructivism Besides generating a fertile dialogue that transcends the narrow confines of EU policy contributions highlight the value of intellectual pluralism and the need for clear and rigorous explanations of the policy process This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy

Differential Europe Adrienne Windhoff-Héritier, 2001 This cohesive study develops a sophisticated theoretical and conceptual framework for studying the impact of European policies on member states Focusing especially on transport policy the authors employ an empirically rich set of case studies to demonstrate convincingly that this influence depends on pre existing policies and institutional capacity to change Depending on the particular phase of regulation in which a country finds itself and on its institutional flexibility an identical EU policy has remarkably diverse impacts within individual member states Visit our website for sample chapters analysis of the policy area and relevant theoretical works This includes a large volume of published and unpublished materials as well as valuable information obtained through a series of interviews The findings have general implications for relations between the Commission and localities particularly the difficulties of involving ordinary people in European issues

The Spatialities of Europeanization Alun Jones,Julian Clark,2024-03-08 Europeanization is increasingly fashionable in the social sciences as a research focus as well as a backdrop for studies of the European Union and its relations with its member states However to date there is little consensus among the scholarly community over what Europeanization is or how it should be analyzed Spatialities of Europeanization is the first work to comprehensively analyze contemporary research across the social sciences and humanities in order to bring together critically informed and previously unconnected contributions on this vital topic The authors identify unexplored communalities between these different research traditions as well as shedding light on its neglected geographical and spatial dimensions which they argue are critical to understanding Europeanization in the 21st century This book reflects a strong conceptual approach which is supported by detailed empirical materials drawn from interviews with policy elites at supranational national and regional levels in the EU who are engaged in short medium and long term EU policy planning and management Offering fascinating empirically grounded insights into why Europe s governance must now become more transparent and accountable to its 500 million citizens this book will appeal to scholars and researchers in the fields of Political Science International and European Studies
