Body/State Jen Dickinson, 2016-04-08 Body

State brings together original essays addressing various aspects of the evolving interaction between bodies and states. While each essay has different empirical and/or theoretical focus, authors consider a number of overlapping themes to appreciate the state's engagement with and concern about bodies. Divided into five parts, the first part, Bodies Modified and Divided, considers how the production, regulation, policing, and maintenance of borders—physical, social, sexual, political, religious, etc.—are used to enable or constrain the physical re-shaping of the body. Part two, Capital Bodies, extends the state's concern with the flows of bodies that make up the nation to consider how they are enrolled in the complex structures of capitalist exchange that form the basis for maintaining and contesting a set of relationships between states and markets. Part three, Deviance and Resistance, examines both how states seek to discipline non-normal bodies and appreciates the capacity of changes in the socio-cultural meaning and nature of bodies to resist and/or escape states. Part four, Sovereignty and Surveillance, develops themes of deviancy and resistance by considering the impact of new technologies both on the intimate regulatory reach of states into and across bodies and on the nature of embodiment itself. Finally, Part five, The Body Virtual, examines the impact of new technologies and online spaces both on the intimate regulatory reach of states into and across bodies and on the nature of embodiment itself. A varied collection of essays that address important and complex topics in a readable and creative way.

The Migrant Image T. J. Demos, 2013-03-04 The Migrant Image offers a sophisticated analysis of how refugee and exiled artists imagine a globalized world where borders are shifting, populations are forcibly removed from their homelands, and the gap separating the rich from the poor is growing.

Futures and Fictions Simon O'Sullivan, Henriette Gunkell, Ayesha Hameed, 2017-11-21 Futures and Fictions is a book of essays and conversations that explore possibilities for a different political imaginary or more simply the imagining and imaging of alternate narratives and image worlds that might be pitched against the impasses of our neoliberal present. In particular, the book contributes to prescient discussions around decolonization, post-capitalism, and new kinds of social movements, exploring the intersections of these with contemporary art practice and visual culture. Contributions range from work on science, sonic, and financial fictions, and alternative space-time plots to myths and images generated by marginalized and minor communities, queer feminist strategies of fictioning, and the production of new Afro and other futurisms. Contributors to this volume include Ursula K. Le Guin, Theo Reeves, Evisson, Bridget Crone, Kodwo Eshun, Louis Moreno, Laboria Cuboniks, Luciana Parisi, Stefan Helmreich, Mark Fisher, Judy Thorne, Annett Busch, Harold Offeh, Robin Mackay, Elvira Dyangani Ose, Kemang Wa Lehulere, and Oreet Ashery.

Critical Landscapes Emily Eliza Scott, Kirsten J. Swenson, 2015-06-05 From Francis Alÿs and Ursula Biemann to Vivan Sundaram, Allora Calzadilla, and the Center for Urban Pedagogy, some of the most compelling artists today are engaging with the politics of land use, including the growth of the global economy, climate change, sustainability, Occupy movements, and the privatization of public space. Their work pivots around a set of evolving questions: In what ways is land formed over the course of geological time also contemporary and formed by the conditions of the present How might art contribute to the expansion of spatial and environmental justice Editors Emily Eliza Scott and Kirsten Swenson bring together a range of international voices and artworks to illuminate this critical mass of practices One of the first comprehensive treatments of land use in contemporary art Critical Landscapes skillfully surveys the stakes and concerns of recent land based practices outlining the art historical contexts methodological strategies and geopolitical phenomena This cross disciplinary collection is destined to be an essential reference not only within the fields of art and art history but also across those of cultural geography architecture and urban planning environmental history and landscape studies Looking for Headless ,2010 Millions of Suns M. C. Benner Dixon, Sharon Fagan McDermott, 2023-11-01 Millions of Suns is an open invitation for all writers to create something new Each chapter features a pair of essays in dialogue between two working artists Sharon Fagan McDermott and M C Benner Dixon which addresses a specific writing element such as metaphor inspiration place surprise or imagery These hybrid essays reveal how two very different writers approach the building blocks of their craft Explore how white space intersects with grief how the act of reading changes over a lifetime or how familiarity in life and in stories invites us in and gives us a hand to hold Witness the ways that race and climate change find their way onto the page Learn how memory can be an act of betrayal or healing With decades of combined teaching experience McDermott and Benner Dixon share practical craft of writing advice with the reader including over fifty engaging writing prompts to spark the creative process These prompts guide readers toward the freedom and joy that comes with finding one's authentic voice Embracing both the painful and the playful Millions of Suns is an ideal text for classrooms professional development or daily writing practice Through humor lyricism and poignancy the fundamental message of the book remains the same for newcomers and career authors whether they write poetry fiction non fiction or memoir Let Millions of Suns open a door for you into your creative work inviting imagination memory and inspiration into your writing life Markets and the Arts of Attachment Franck Cochoy, Joe Deville, Liz McFall, 2017-05-18 The collection explores how sentiment and relations are organised in consumer markets Social studies of economies and markets have much more to offer than simply adding some context culture or soul to the analysis of economic practices As this collection showcases studying markets socially reveals how attachments between people and products are engineered and can explain how and why they fail The contributors explore the tools and techniques used to work with sentiment aesthetics and relationships through strategies including social media marketing consumer research algorithmic profiling personal selling and call centre and relationship management The arts of attachment as the various contributions demonstrate play a crucial but often misunderstood role in the technical and organisational functioning of markets Birth of the Financial Thriller Mikkel Krause Frantzen, 2025-03-31 Discover the untold story of the financial thriller a genre pioneered by Canadian banker turned author Paul Erdman from a Swiss prison cell Starting with the publication of The Billion Dollar Sure Thing in 1973 this book explores the genre's evolution as a popular and even vulgar genre of financialisation characterised by volatile plots centred on currency speculation where the central mystery is money not murder By contextualising the rise of financial thrillers within the dramatic events of the 1970s such as the abolition of the Bretton Woods system and the oil crises this book illustrates how a genre found the world of finance during a particular historical moment but also how the world of finance found its genre This compelling narrative connects the past to our present financial landscape making it essential for anyone interested in the intersection of economic literary and cultural history

On Theory-Fiction and Other Genres Simon O'Sullivan, 2024-11-27 This book looks at three different kinds of writing practice theory fiction autofiction autotheory and art writing that are increasingly prevalent as genres or hybrid genres in the arts and critical humanities The chapters in the book operate as a critical survey of these new forms of writing many examples are listed whilst at the same time they each work towards some provisional definitions Some key precursors to these new genres are also identified The book explores what these new kinds of writing do What is particular to them or what do they add to those already existing styles and genres and especially the academic essay and article Key here is that each form of writing works in a performative manner or as a device that enables a shift in perspective A case is made for their urgency in relation to contemporary issues and concerns and for their importance in terms of being both from and for more marginalised communities The book concludes with a discussion of machine writing and especially our collaboration with artificial intelligence language models

Contested Property Claims Maja Hojer Bruun, Patrick Joseph Cockburn, Bjarke Skærlund Risager, Mikkel Thorup, 2017-12-01 Property relations are such a common feature of social life that the complexity of the web of laws practices and ideas that allow a property regime to function smoothly are often forgotten But we are quickly reminded of this complexity when conflict over property erupts When social actors confront a property regime for example by squatting they enact what can be called contested property claims As this book demonstrates these confrontations raise crucial issues of social justice and show the ways in which property conflicts often reflect wider social conflicts Through a series of case studies from across the globe this multidisciplinary anthology brings together works from anthropologists legal scholars and geographers who show how exploring contested property claims offers a privileged window onto how property regimes function as well as an illustration of the many ways that the institution of property shapes power relationships today
