Golf Is Dying Does Anybody Care:

Golf Is Dying. Does Anybody Care? Pat Gallagher, 2013-12 The 600 year old sport of golf was once considered a metaphor for culture sportsmanship and accomplishment in America So why has participation declined so much in recent years The answer according to author Pat Gallagher is the sport s resistance to productive change While other sports have embraced new technology and innovation with open arms traditionalists strive to protect the game of golf and keep it exactly as they love it even in the face of suffering courses and shrinking audiences This first hand account documents how Gallagher and his partners advocated new thinking to revive the game of golf from both a sporting and business perspective In January 2011 they founded the Alternative Golf Association and Project Flogton not golf spelled backwards in an attempt to challenge the leaders in golf to think differently and grow participation in the sport In this informative true story readers will get a front row look at the ideas behind Alternative Golf what they accomplished where they were wrong and what they now believe ought to happen in the future to reverse golf s steady decline In addition you ll find out the facts behind some of the biggest myths perpetuated by the golf industry from participation numbers to the real consequences facing golf courses and investors
