

A romantic scene set in a misty, blue-toned forest. A muscular, shirtless man with dark hair and a beard is embracing a woman with long, wavy brown hair. The woman is wearing a light blue, low-cut dress and has her hand on the man's chest. To their right, a large, detailed wolf with grey, black, and brown fur stands looking towards the right. The overall mood is intimate and mysterious.

vampires although she's supposed to be drawn to them to kill those who are renegades since she's a born huntress. But something about her is different. Ostracized from her family, she lives precariously on her own. That is until a local vampire targets her. Then she meets a fellow Army officer Robert Parker who she believes is one of them, a vampire or blood host or something. Suddenly, nothing is the same. Army officer Robert Parker is on assignment at Fort Hood, Texas, trying to track down the vampire who murdered his sister after hours. When he spies Crystal coming out of a vampire house, he assumes she's a human host and that she can lead him to his murderer. Except he's drawn to her like a hunter would be to a huntress until he learns she's not quite right. She's fighting alone without a family of hunters' support and he's bound to do something about it before she gets herself killed or worse.
