The gift of Pentecost, meditations on the Holy Ghost, tr. by lady A. Kerr Maurice Meschler,1903     The Manual of the Blessed Trinity Catholic Church,1870     Sermons for Every Sunday in the Year and for the Leading Holidays of Obligation William Gahan,1880     The Little Garden of the Soul, Etc Richard Challoner,1873     Spiraling Into God Katharine Wrisley Shelby,Katherine Wrisley Shelby,2023-09-22 Spiraling into God Bonaventure on Grace Hierarchy and Holiness offers a systematic account of the Seraphic Doctor s doctrine of grace across his speculative academic mystical hagiographical and pastoral texts It does so by arguing that an account of this kind can only be provided by also attending to his theology of hierarchy a methodology derived from Bonaventure s claim in the Major Legend of St Francis that Francis of Assisi was a vir hierarchicus or hierarchical man As the book explores in great depth this appellation relies upon Bonaventure s reading of a Victorine Dionysian interpreter by the name of Thomas Gallus whose angelic anthropology or notion of the hierarchical soul becomes a crucial component within the Seraphic Doctor s teaching on grace as he interprets the sanctity of St Francis Throughout the course of his career Bonvaenture will define sanctifying grace as a created inflowing influentia that hierarchizes human beings by purifying illuminating and perfecting them from within thus causing them to become a similitude of the Trinity This book explains what this means and why it matters Most existing scholarship on this subject in Bonaventure s thought interprets it as a subtopic with respect to other themes for example with respect to his Christology or his Trinitarian theology rather than taking the time to understand his doctrine of grace in its own right Alternatively scholarly treatments of his doctrine of grace will treat it at length but will only examine the topic as it appears in his more speculative academic texts most especially his Commentary on the Sentences or his famous Itinerarium Mentis in Deum without bringing these into conversation with his pastoral works sermon literature or hagiographical texts This book provides the first unified treatment of Bonaventure s doctrine of grace across all these different genres of his known corpus and in so doing fills a massive lacuna in both Bonaventurian scholarship and in the field of medieval historical theology which many contend was written to Julian This work has a life of its own and is continually resurfacing Julian emphasizes numerous points of doctrine with an exquisite joy focusing on the bliss and glory rather than the idea of earth s being a battleground for good and evil This is one thing which sets her apart from many others regardless of their gender The churchman's guide to faith and piety [signed by R.B.] Robert Brett,1862 The Bread of Life Or St. Thomas Aquinas on the Adorable Sacrament of the Altar Thomas Aquinas (O.P.),1879 Revelations of Divine Love Julian of Norwich,Wyatt North,2014-03-11 The Revelations of Divine Love which also bears the title A Revelation of Love in Sixteen Shewings above the first chapter is a book of Christian mystical devotions written by Julian of Norwich It is believed to be the first published book in the English language to be written by a woman At the age of thirty May 13 1373 Julian was struck with a serious illness As she prayed and prepared for death she received a series of sixteen visions on the Passion of Christ and the Virgin Mary Saved from the brink of death Julian of Norwich dedicated her life to solitary prayer and the contemplation of the visions she had received She wrote a short account of her visions probably soon after the event About twenty or thirty years after her illness near the end of the fourteenth century she wrote down her visions and her understanding of them Whereas Latin was the language of religion in her day Julian of Norwich wrote in a straightforward Middle English perhaps because she had no other medium in which to express herself she describes herself as a simple creature unlettered Rev chap 2
