

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space programs and rockets?	That U.S. support them economically (training, fuel, etc.)	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the rockets and satellites they could build?	They would certainly produce satellites that were better. They could improve delivery of aid.	They were worried about the loss of U.S. technology when John F. Kennedy became president. They also worried about Soviet satellites, planned attacks, and control of Germany (through Russia, France).
3. Would anyone challenge either side?	Not really.	Others might be tempted to join the competition and also challenge.
4. Would the two nations agree about other countries' security?	Yes. The governments had no programs. There was no common enemy.	Yes. American policy was to support any world not like a communist like Russia.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these other agreements made earlier.

3. Why did the two nations agree to this?

4. What was the U.S. government's main purpose in this?

5. How would the agreement help the two nations and the world?
