Guidelines For Subject Access In National Bibliographies Ifla Series On Bibliographic Control:

Guidelines for Subject Access in National Bibliographies IFLA Working Group on Guidelines for Subject Access by National Bibliographic Agencies, 2012-04-26 In a networked and globalized world of information the form of national bibliographies may have changed however their major function remains unchanged to inform about a country's publication landscape its cultural and intellectual heritage Subject access offers a major route into this landscape providing information about the dispersion of publications in specific fields of knowledge and topics contained in a particular national publishing output The Guidelines for Subject Access in National Bibliographies give graded recommendations concerning subject indexing policies for national bibliographic agencies and illustrating various policies by providing best practice examples

Bibliographic Control in the Digital Ecosystem Giovanni Bergamin, Mauro Guerrini, 2022-05-12 With the contributions of international experts the book aims to explore the new boundaries of universal bibliographic control Bibliographic control is radically changing because the bibliographic universe is radically changing resources agents technologies standards and practices Among the main topics addressed library cooperation networks legal deposit national bibliographies new tools and standards IFLA LRM RDA BIBFRAME authority control and new alliances Wikidata Wikibase Identifiers new ways of indexing resources artificial intelligence institutional repositories new book supply chain discoverability in the IIF digital ecosystem role of thesauri and ontologies in the digital ecosystem bibliographic control and search engines National Bibliographies in the Digital Age IFLA Working Group on Guidelines for National Bibliographies, 2009 The changes brought about by the World Wide Web and the explosion of electronic media have called into question many of the assumptions on which national bibliographies have been founded The need was growing of a route map to navigate through uncharted territories After a preparation period of several years IFLA's Bibliography Section endorsed this large set of guidelines They seek to help national bibliographic agencies improve their bibliographic services Many examples and references are included

Guidelines for Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC) Displays International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions. Task Force on Guidelines for OPAC Displays, 2005 Existing Online Public Access Catalogues OPACs demonstrate differences in the range and complexity of their functional features terminology and help facilities While many libraries already have OPACs there is a need to bring together in the form of guidelines or recommendations a corpus of good practice to assist libraries in designing or re-designing the displays for their OPACs taking into consideration the needs of users The audience for these guidelines is librarians charged with customizing OPAC software and vendors and producers of this software The guidelines are mainly designed for general libraries with collections of resources in the humanities the social sciences and the pure and applied sciences The guidelines are intended to apply to any type of catalogue independently of the kind of interface and technology used National Bibliographies in the Digital Age: Guidance and New Directions Maja Žumer, 2009-08-17 The changes brought about by the World Wide Web and the explosion of
